Bernard T. Pinney, director of personnel administration at St. Elizabeth Hospital, entered the hospital as a patient today to undergo a series of tests.

'Fractured Follies' Rehearsals Underway

Rehearsals and more rehearsals are under way for Quad-City residents who are part of a large cast of talented local performers preparing the second annual show "Fractured Follies" musical review.

The show will be staged at 8:15 p.m. Friday and Saturday, Nov. 6-7, at the auditorium of Granite City high school under the auspices of St. Elizabeth Hospital Auxiliary. Proceeds from the event will benefit the hospital's building fund.

Twice daily practice sessions are being conducted by a professional director, Chris Carter, a veteran of 20 years with the Jerome H. Cargill Producing Organization of New York City. The local musical revue will mark his 173rd production for the company.

The "Fractured Follies" producer received his formal dramatic training at the Dramatic Workshop of New York City. While there he studied "the method," and is a firm believer in this approach to acting.

Former Dancer Prior to receiving any training in the acting field, Carter was a professional dancer, appearing as half of the dance team of Barbour and Carter which performed in supper clubs across the country.

CHRIS CARTER
'Follies' Producer

The professional showman has appeared in the legitimate theatre, as well as summer stock, and acting stints on television. Professionally, he is rated high as an actor, dancer, director and choreographer.

Other shows in Illinois he has produced were featured in the communities of Elgin, Elmhurst, Aurora and Northbrook.

The director promised a rigorous schedule of rehearsals and he has proved a stern taskmaster to the volunteer performers in "Fractured Follies." Within the short space of one week, Carter has successfully welded together diverse personalities and varied acts into a smooth-running revue, one official of the sponsoring organization noted.

Rehearsal sessions are scheduled today at 9 a.m. at the VFW Hall and at 7 p.m. in the Granite City Elk's Club. Tomorrow both practice sessions will be held at the VFW Hall, as well as on Sunday at 2 p.m. and on Monday at 9 a.m. and 7 p.m.

Tuesday's rehearsals will be conducted in the Wiseman Room of the hospital at 9 a.m. and in the Elk's Club at 7 a.m. Wednesday, the group will return to the VFW Hall for 9 a.m. rehearsals and the Elk's Club at 7 p.m.

A full-scale dress rehearsal is set next Thursday from 7 to 11 p.m. at Granite City high school. Tickets for "Fractured Follies" now are on sale at a cost of $2.50 for adults and $1 for students.

Elzie H. Breckenridge, 83, of 2333 East 24th street, died at 3 p.m. Tuesday at St. Elizabeth Hospital where he had been a patient one month. He had been ill of a heart ailment for several years.

He was born in Breckenridge, Ill. and lived here more than 45 years. He was a member of the Central Church, American Legion post 113, Masonic Lodge 838, the Low 12 Club, the Last Man's Club and the National Association of Retired Civil Employees.

He was a world war I veteran. He retired from the U. S. Railway Mail Service where he was a mail clerk for 43 years. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Eureka Breckenridge; one daughter, Mrs. L. Lawrence (Dorothy) O'Neill of Baldwin, Mo.; and five grandchildren. Funeral arrangements are given in today's obituary column.

Youngsters to Trick or Treat for UNICEF Funds

Don't be surprised on Halloween night if a little ghost or goblin refuses your candy and asks for money instead. He's probably a Unicef trick or treator, collecting for the United Nations Children's Fund. Nearly 200 children will be collecting tonight and tomorrow night for the charity which assists underdeveloped countries in meeting the nutritional, medical and educational needs of their children.

Although in costume, they will be clearly identified by the Unicef coin box they carry and the younger children will be accompanied by adults.

Unicef trick or treaters will collect donations from 6 to 8 p.m. on the two nights.

Unicef was granted the Nobel Peace Prize in 1965 as an organization directly engaged in the cause of peace. By providing a better life and increased opportunity for more of today's children, Unicef is helping to furnish the talents, skills, and energy needed to create a peaceful world in the future.

Unicef aid is given in a country only upon the request of its government, and it encourages that country to undertake programs that will benefit its children. Unicef believes that investment in a country's human resources, the sum total of its children's potentialities, is as essential to its growth as any investment in industry and land.

Youngsters residing in the village of Pontoon Beach are invited to a Halloween party to be given at 7 p.m. today in the Long Lake fire hall. Several residents of the community, including Pontoon Village President Thomas Staicoff, will host the affair.

"Toots to teeny teens are welcome to come to the party," Staicoff said this week. All children who attend in masquerade costume will be eligible to be judged for awards, he added.

First, second and third place prizes will be awarded in age groups in three categories—best dressed, most comical and most original. Free Halloween candies and soft drinks also will be distributed, according to the village officer.

Others assisting in the project are Mrs. Sharon Littlejohn, Mrs. Nora Birch, Loren Madison, Mrs. Gerry Recker and Robert and Sharon Snyder.

Progress Reports Issued Parents At St. Teresa's

Progress reports were issued at St. Teresa Academy, East St. Louis, this week at a meeting with parents, beginning in the STA auditorium and finishing with personal contact with teachers of their daughters.

This fall the three-year gradual changeover from the traditional to the modern high school culminated in a completely new method of recording (and insuring) progress.

Each department in the school issued credit cards to students who had fulfilled the objectives set for the nine-week period closing Oct. 23. There were no "F" grades, and a surprisingly high number of "extra" credits for independent study courses taken on and working at a greater-than-average rate by interested students.

These students may now forge ahead and no longer need to sit in boredom to hear a whole class taught what a non-existent "normal" pupil ought to be learning.

Stress Learning Concepts
Stress is put on learning concepts, not on grades. In use for the first time on a schoolwide basis is the credit/non-credit system of grading, in which each teacher presents to the members of his class or to the students in his independent study course a list of objectives which are to be attained before credit will be given.

A typical credit card will indicate which objectives of the course have been attained. If a student has not gained credit, she knows exactly which objectives must still be reached. Although one may gain credit more slowly or more quickly, a course is never "flunked," but only left incomplete.

While the ABC system tends to judge, categorize, and label students, as Registrar Sister Carol Werner pointed out, the credit/non-credit system recognizes only what students accomplish, allows the student to study what is worthwhile to her rather than what the teacher wants for an "A," and helps her to form an attitude to learning that is positive.

Hopefully the students trained in this fashion will not "turn off" their study on the day of final exams, but go on to learning throughout life in modern society, where to cease learning for one day is to be unable to cope with changing society.

Selected Options
St. Teresa Academy has no traditional study halls. Each student is free during 20% to 40% of her day, when not in class, to study, do leisurely reading, work at audio-visual materials and other reference items prepared for her in the various labs and resource centers scattered through the four-building complex of the school, or simply go to the "informal" and relax with friends.

It is no longer as likely that students will go through four years of secondary school without making a wide spectrum of friends or brushing up against the varied thoughts and attitudes of others not of the same cultural or social outlook.

Since it is possible in the credit/non-credit modular system to stack up a large number of extra credits if one has the drive to do so, the school graduates students when they have attained 19 credits (three more than the state requirement because many of the students take three credits in religion). In several departments, sophomores, juniors and seniors may intermingling; some upperclass courses are open also to freshmen who can qualify.

The strength of this type of program, according to Principal Sister Mary Simpson, ASC, lies in a faculty thoroughly convinced and dedicated to a person-centered philosophy of education.

Faculty Senate Governs
The school is governed by a senate of faculty members chaired by the principal. The subject-matter departments meet regularly under their respective heads and continually research and evaluate as the changes are implemented.

Student-faculty cooperation is obtained through a growing number of communication paths developed from the beginning of each student's career, by the communications course offered in four departments, freshmen in the religion department.

Student and parental response to the new program has been strongly positive, according to students and teachers alike.

Bi-County Parents Plan for Classroom Improvements

The Bi-County Parents Group for Hearing Impaired children met Tuesday evening at Lake school, Granite City, President Steve Gargac welcomed all to the meeting and announced that carpets have been ordered for all deaf classrooms in Granite City and O'Fallon and for two classrooms in East St. Louis.

The carpets will be installed pending approval by the state fire marshal. Letters were read from the Granite City and O'Fallon school boards advising of acceptance and appreciation of the carpets.

Gargac summarized a letter from the Alexander Graham Bell Association for the Deaf, advising of its services and reminding parents to register in the national census of the deaf being conducted by the U. S. government. All deaf adults and children are to be registered with Census of the Deaf, Box 14282, Ben Franklin Station, Washington, D. C. 20044; information is to include the name, address and age.

Aid by Carrier Auxiliary
The Ladies' Auxiliary of the National Rural Letter Carriers has informed the parents' group that its national project will be to assist the hearing handicapped; the auxiliary will provide financial aid to the association for college scholarships for hearing impaired students. Mrs. Mary Barans is president of the Auxiliary.

Members voted funds for the Illinois Parents of Hearing Impaired to cover membership in the organization. Gargac is serving as legislative chairman of the state executive board. It was voted to forward membership dues of the Bell Association.

Mrs. Gail Gargac reported that Beta Sigma Phi of East St. Louis will again provide help for classes. Mrs. Eleanor Hall, president of the sorority, has reported that the group is selling animal pillows.

Homemakers to Clean Old Cemetery Land

Members of the Granite City high school Future Homemakers of America Saturday will clean up a 115-year-old cemetery.

Located just off FA Route 151 near the A. O. Smith plant, the cemetery originally was an Odd Fellows lodge property and all lots are individually owned.

Members of the lodge say no one has been buried there for 25 to 30 years.

Miss Andrea Tharp, home economics teacher at Granite City high school heard about the run-down condition of the cemetery and spoke to the Future Homemakers of America, a community service the girls decided to clean it up. FHA members working on the project will be Beth Dineff, Carolyn Farlow, Barb Gaines, Sally Getteman, Nancy Hamilton, Jeanne Joyce, Joyce Jones, Kathy McGovern, Debbie Mezo, Dibble Portell, Sandy White, Pam Stark, Debbie Martin, Brenda Sullivan, Sherry Wilson, Linda Sullivan, Debbie Watkins and Debra Welker.

Masques Set Tryout Dates for Next Show

Masques, Inc. will be conducting tryouts for their next production, "A Thurbur Carnival," at 2 and 7:30 p.m. Sunday and at 7:30 p.m. Monday. It was announced today by Al Erickson, director. Auditions will take place at the Firemen's Hall, 125 South Center street, Collinsville.

According to Erickson, there are roles available for five men and four women, with each performer appearing as several characters. Anyone interested in trying out for a role or assisting in other areas of the production is invited to attend auditions.

Production dates for "A Thurbur Carnival" are Friday and Saturday, Jan. 15-16, in Collinsville and Saturday, Jan. 23, in Granite City.

Daughter Born

Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Paschedag, 3161 Davis street, are announcing the birth of a daughter Monday at Jewish Hospital in St. Louis. The new arrival, whose weight was seven pounds, 14 ounces, has been named Melanie Ann. She has a brother, Daren, 20 months old. The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Jacob H. Johnson of Sikeston, Mo. Mr. Paschedag is a son of Mrs. Ora M. Paschedag, 4149 Division street.

The sorority will also sponsor a bazaar May 15, with proceeds to go to the bi-county oral deaf classes.

Mrs. Linda Motley, secretary, reported on the last meeting and it was decided to purchase material to make curtains to replace those at a pre-primary classroom in South Roxana. Other purchases for classrooms were approved.

Plan Yule Party Here

A committee was appointed to plan for a family Christmas party, Dec. 22 at Lake school, and a discussion was held on transportation for a field trip for Belleville classes.

Copies of bylaws were distributed and Jim Grote of Granite City was thanked for serving as chairman of the committee. Also distributed were reprints of an article on transplants.

Mrs. Elveria Kuergels, director of Special Education District, Region 1, spoke to the gathering, inviting all to an open house at the special education office, Nov. 19 from 7 to 9 p.m. She informed the parents of activities for children being planned by the Parents Committee for Special Education. Teachers introduced were Mrs. Sharon Taylor, Mrs. Virginia Ambuster, Mrs. John Fry, Mrs. Ruth Bryant, Mrs. Kne Parker, Mrs. Rosemary

MORE ABOUT Unexplained

Quad-city center board is empowered to select the clinic director.

Ultimate authority is believed to rest with the County Board of Supervisors, who are chairman of the 708 Board. The latter group so far has not been overruled in its policies by the County Board, which is made up of township supervisors and assistant supervisors.

Unless the funds sought are granted, the Quad-city center will have to lay off five part-time professional staff members, Daumiller said.

There are five full-time professionals plus a business manager, receptionist and two secretaries.

Counseling Jeopardized
The staff reduction could not be absorbed and would result in adults and children needing counseling being placed on a waiting list. The Rotary club was informed. Eight hundred patients are on the present active list.

There is no waiting list at present because it is recognized that many of these with emo-

Hurt in Collision

Robert L. Deckard, 73, of 2012 Thirtieth street, was injured when he car collided with the auto of Everett H. Flors, 1854 Edwardsville road, Madison, parked in front of Flors's home at 6:30 a.m. Wednesday. He refused hospital treatment, police said.

tional problems and other mentally-related handicaps at times need immediate attention if they are to cope with their problems and remain productive members of society, Daumiller said.

It was noted Tuesday that cost comparisons are difficult to show accurately, since the goal of community centers is to reduce the number of people who need to be full-time residents of state mental hospitals, where they cannot produce goods or pay taxes but instead become burdens to other taxpayers. Lack of county funds also could jeopardize the clinic's state grants.

Work with Schools, Hospital

In a talk prior to the question period, Daumiller explained the clinic services, which include individual and group therapy and consultations with parents and school authorities, as well as a limited in-patient program at St. Elizabeth Hospital and a satellite program in Collinsville.

He was introduced by Marvin Van Metre, program chairman, Rotary President John Polson presided and Edwin G. Schmitt played piano selections.

The club voted to increase its financial support to the Rotary Foundation.

Mayors' Council Backs Pollution Bond Issue

The Southwestern Illinois Council of Mayors, composed of mayors from cities in Madison, Monroe and St. Clair counties, last evening endorsed the anti-pollution bond issue which will appear on the Nov. 3 election ballot.

The bond issue would raise $70 million which would permit the state to pay 25 per cent of all costs of improving municipal sewage treatment plants over the next ten years and substantially increase federal funding.

Joe Mathewson, executive secretary of the Illinois Citizens for Clean Water, who presented the anti-pollution proposal to the mayors for their endorsement, said their promotion of the project would prove to the public that local government will provide leadership in meeting the demands for improving the environment.

Lawn & Garden

Replacing the Elm
The vase shaped American Elm is unique among shade trees in America. The wide arching branches provide abundant shade and a clear view.

Since Dutch Elm disease and phloem necrosis have combined to destroy the elm as a reliable shade tree, nine local trees are offered by nurseries and replantations. All are giants of 30 feet or more.

In the next few weeks this column will include brief comments on each of the following: Hackberry, White Ash, River Birch, Kentucky Coffee tree, Ginkgo, Hickory, Red Maple, Sugar Maple and Sweet Gum.

Stevenson 'Light Up' Activities Next Week

Volunteers throughout Illinois will "light up" for State Treasurer Adlai E. Stevenson III, Democratic candidate for U. S. senator, beginning at 6:15 p.m. Sunday.

More than 2000 families who have opened their homes to porchlights and keep them on until election day Nov. 3 to remind voters to vote.

The idea for the light up originated with Mrs. Toni Adams, a Stevenson home headquarters coordinator in Bloomington.

The home headquarters are part of the grassroots political effort of the Stevenson for Senator citizens' committee. The homes are used to recruit volunteers for doorbell ringing and election day work, as information centers, as campaign literature and materials distribution points, and for coffees and fund events.

In addition, home headquarters chairmen have served as hostesses when either Stevenson or his wife, Nancy, campaign in one of the cities.

The statewide Stevenson home headquarters operation has been under the direction of Mrs. Joanne Simon, wife of U. S. Gov. Paul Simon, and Mrs. James (Joanne) Alter of Chicago.

Walking Called Ideal Way to Protect Heart

It's time to take your husband's heart to heart.

This is especially important if he is one of that large group of sedentary males desk-bound at the office, a sports participant by the grace of television, and who drives the car even to the corner store.

No wife wants to be bereaved at an early age, and reports of deaths from heart attacks of men in their prime are appearing with greater frequency. Actually, the U. S. is reported to have the highest death rate from heart attack of any country in the world. Can you help your husband adopt a regimen of exercise which may aid in its prevention?

Obviously you can't nag him into exercising if he doesn't want to, even if it's good for him, nor can you do the exercises for him. So, a first step may be getting him to the expert—the family doctor.

The doctor will decide whether your husband's physical condition warrants exercise, what type and how strenuous it should be. Once he clears the way for a sensible program of exercise, you can quote chapter and verse to your husband as to why he should start. Here are some guidelines taken from a survey of medical authorities:

Swimming, Cycling
To those who have not been exercising regularly—

In the under 50 group, practically all types of exercise programs can be started after medical clearance.

For those 50-59, progressive walking, then running programs and group sports activities are permissible under close medical supervision.

For men 60 and over, walking, swimming, stationary cycling and golf are suggested. If they gradually condition themselves and participate in a medically supervised program, they may jog and run.

Exercising unused muscles may cause some discomfort at the beginning. If your husband develops aching legs or feet the first few days, a hot bath will help bring relief.

Start your husband off by joining him in the walking phase of his exercise program. As he gradually intensifies his activity you can gradually bow out, if you want to. But remember—exercise is important for women, too. Encourage your husband to exercise every day until this good habit is firmly fixed.

Bills' Kickers Next on Slate For Cougars

Coach Bob Guelker's Southern Illinois University-Southwestern soccer team, third-ranked in the Midwest, registered impressive victories over the past weekend by defeating a strong University of British Columbia team, 3-1, and turning back the University of South Florida squad, 6-0.

Said Coach Joe Johnson of the Canadian club: "The SIU-SW club appeared to me to be just a shade better than any of the teams we played in our four of the States."

Johnson's UBC kickers were themselves impressive with a 1-1 standstill against fourth-ranked San Jose State and a 3-3 stand-off against eighth-ranked San Francisco U., plus a 4-0 win over Monterey Naval School, a 2-2 triumph against Colorado College and a victory over the Denver All-Stars.

St. Louis University, the No. 1 ranked team, turned back the University of South Florida, 5-1, and soundly beat UBC by the same score.

All of which pinpoints the coming Nov. 7 battle between St. Louis U. and SIU-SW on the Cougar field. A bid to the post-season NCAA midwest regional tournament could well ride on the contest's outcome.

In SIU-SW's 6-0 victory over South Florida, Coach Guelker got a tremendous individual scoring effort from his big striker, John Carezza.

Big John blasted in five of the six goals to establish a new individual game record of four set by Pete Zakrzewski in 1967, the Cougar's first in intercollegiate soccer play. Carezza's five goals and one assist against SFU brings his three-year point total to 64.

GC Sophs In 16-8 Loss At Belleville

The Granite City high school sophomore football team lost to Belleville-East by a 16 to 8 count Monday at Belleville.

The sophomores were to have played East St. Louis, but due to the teachers strike there, a change in schedule was made.

Gary Lively scored the touchdown and 2 point conversion for Granite City in the third quarter.

The next game will be at Edwardsville at 4 p.m. Monday.

Warrior Grid Team To Meet Edwardsville In Homecoming Game

With Homecoming in the air, the Granite City high school football Warriors will be up for a Southwestern Conference game against Edwardsville's Tiger at 8 p.m. Friday.

Coach Wayne Williams' Warriors will be out to break a three-game losing streak to the Tigers of Coach Paul Fuchs who last year knocked the local team out of first place in the conference on an interception.

The 1969 game hinged on a Warrior conversion after time had run out. The Warriors elected to go for two points and a win, rather than a one-point kick and a tie.

Warrior Dave Evans passed to Dave Melzer in the conversion attempt, but Tiger Steve Schroeder intercepted and Edwardsville won 14 to 13, taking home a trophy.

This year things could be different as Edwardsville only has seven returning lettermen without much experience.

The Tigers lost 19 lettermen to graduation last spring.

Edwardsville Records

The only game Edwardsville has won this season was a 12 to 7 victory over O'Fallon, 6-0.

The Tiger's have lost to Belleville-East 38 to 0, Wood River 22 to 6, Collinsville 28 to 21, Alton 36 to 13 and they did not play East St. Louis due to the Flyers teachers strike.

1969 they had a 5-3-1 overall record, and a four-and-two conference record.

This year the Tigers have a one-and-four record.

Injuries have taken two starting players out. Pat Martin, safety, has a broken finger and Jim Schwab, fullback, is out for the rest of the season due to illness.

Lack of Experience

Coach Fuchs says "Our problem this year is lack of experience and no speed. We have a lot of juniors and that hurts. To say we are 'rebuilding' is an understatement. We have been throwing the ball far too much as our record indicates."

Coach Fuchs has reservations about throwing but says its the only way they can move the ball this year.

Fuchs pointed out two things needed in the Southwestern Conference. "Even if you are an excellent team, I don't think you can win consistently unless you play pattern football. You have to have experienced seniors to play and win in this league."

Play Split End

"We will play a split end and a split back. We have no true fullback, no power and a small backfield. The only thing I will promise the Granite City fans is that we will show up for the game," Fuch told the Press-Record.

The offensive Tigers will be right end Sam Denicker, senior, 6-1, 160, right tackle, is an Schneider, junior, 6-3, 225, right guard Chuck Hogue, senior, 6-10, 185; center Ken Schaake, senior, 6-1, 175; left guard Paul King, senior, 6-11, 235; left tackle Ed Guffy, junior, 6-1, 208; left end Dave Schoenleber, junior, 5-9, 150.

Dave Rieger, junior, 5-10, 160, comes in as linebacker on defense.

According to Coach Williams, "We have to win this game. Not only is it a conference game and a homecoming game, but if we can win the remaining three games we will finish with a 1970 record of eight and one, and this would be the best Warrior record since 1937."

Cougars Rank 7th in U.S. Soccer Ranks

Southern Illinois University-Southwestern's soccer team vaulted from eleventh to seventh in the national rankings in a survey conducted this week by coaches throughout the United States. The poll was the sixth of the current season.

The Cougar kickers of Coach Bob Guelker, who won two big victories over the past weekend, are now 6-1 for the season, including a 1-0 loss to third-ranked Quincy College three weeks ago.

In competition this past Saturday and Sunday, SIU-SW defeated the University of British Columbia, 3-1, and blasted the University of South Florida, 6-0.

St. Louis University, the defending NCAA soccer champion, retained its No. 1 spot, and has only a 0-0 tie with Quincy College marring its record.

Hartwick College, with a 6-0 record, is second, Quincy College third, Harvard U. fourth, San Jose State fifth, Philadelphia Textile sixth, and SIU-SW seventh.

Buffalo State, with a 9-0 mark, is in the No. 8 spot and Brown U. and Penn State are 9th and 10th, in that order.

For the first time this season, the University of San Francisco Dons dropped out of the top ten. They are now 11th. After the

Sophs May Move Up To Madison Varsity; Meet Duplo Saturday

"The football knowledge is just not there, we're playing dumb football," Madison high school Coach Al Vonder Haar said as his Trojans prepared for Duplo in a home game at 2 p.m. Saturday.

"The kids aren't dumb, but when they get out on the field they freeze and the reaction is slow. The boys we expected to do well this year just aren't clicking."

(Austin) Lewis, (Ed) Campbell, (Bobby) Shimmis, a d (Courtney) Prothro are doing all the work. If the rest of the players can't perform I am just going to start playing more sophomores, and get ready for the coming year. Next season I will have all juniors and one senior so I might as well give the sophomores a chance this year. They can't do much worse."

Three Games Remain

The Trojans record to date is one and five, and one and one in conference play. The remaining games, against Duplo, Roxana and Civic Memorial, are all conference games.

The Trojan coach said that Duplo is an unpredictable team and plays about the same type of ball as Madison. "We should beat them, as we can out maneuver them if we quit making so many dumb mistakes," Vonder Haar said.

"I'll probably be making a lot of changes in the lineup during the game with Duplo, and in our last two games, it will depend on the attitude and performance of each player this Saturday."

Chuck Wuerffel, in his first year as head football coach at Duplo, told the Press-Record, "We're but for Trojan blood!"

The Madison-Duplo game has always been a high spot in the schedule and the team is all keyed up to beat Madison's football off the ground now.

"Two years ago we went to Madison! undefeated and got beat 22 to 19, and last year they came here, and in the last few minutes of play got by us and won 14 to 12. Well, it's not going to happen again."

The Duplo Tiger record this year is one and six. They beat Madison 22 to 6, and lost to Meigs 10 to 0, Nashville 6 to 0, Bethalto 7 to 14, Roxana 22 to 6 and last week to Georgetown 24 to 14. The 1969 record was three and six.

Wuerffel had been junior varsity coach the past two years at Duplo, and prior to that was the backfield coach at East St. Louis.

Dons in order, were: UCLA, Navy, Army, Springfield, Mass. College, Davis & Elkins U., and Pennsylvania, Maryland U., and Cleveland State.

SIU-SW's team won't return to the soccer wars until Nov. 7th when the Cougars will host St. Louis University.

Backfield for the Tigers will be Dan McKinney, 6-0, 140 junior, quarterback; Wayne Wolf, 6-0, 160, senior, wing back; Terry Burton, 5-9, 165 senior, fullback; and Jim LaCroix, 5-10, 145, junior, halfback.

Madison Frosh Lose 28-20 Battle

Madison high school's freshman football team lost to Cleveland of St. Louis 28 to 20 in a game played Tuesday at Madison.

Despite the loss of head football coach Al Vonder Haar of Madison said, "It was a good game, and the boys are starting to play together."

On Nov. 5 the Madison frosh will travel to O'Fallon for a 4 p.m. game.

Duplo has had problems with injuries. Tom Thomas (150, junior), who was to have been the primary running back, has been out since the beginning of the season with a back injury will not be around. Ken Robinson, starting offensive tackle and defensive lineman suffered a shoulder separation in the first game of the season. Barry Thomas, Tom's brother and starting linebacker, suffered a back injury in the game against Roxana.

"Dan LaCroix, 6-2, 145, junior, who plays end, is our prime receiver has good hands and runs well. Keeping us honest up the middle is Terry Burton, fullback, 5-9, 165, senior, is solid runner and a hard namer. We also like to put the ball in the air, and Dean McKinney, 6-0, 140, junior, quarterback, throws well."

Independent Ball

When asked about playing independent ball next year (Duplo like Madison was not accepted by the newly formed conference), Wuerffel said, "We have been able to line up a good schedule with some new teams. We will be playing Lutheran High South and Lutheran North from St. Louis next season and we will also be going back to playing Western Military."

"We will have a few more Saturday afternoon games compared to three of our nine this season."

"One thing I am happy to report is the Duplo Quarterback and the Little League football ball off the ground now."

"We are playing PeeWees and Midgets which are for the fifth to seventh grades and next year this will be expanded to the eighth grade."

Over the next few years this will pay real dividends to our high school football as the kids will have learned the basics of the game before they get into high school."

"Starting players for Duplo will be Dan LaCroix, 6-1, 160, senior, end; Julie Levin, 6-2, 155, senior, end; Dennis Keys, 5-8, 200, senior, guard; Mike Harris, 5-3, 135, junior, guard; Frank DeJarnette, 6-11, 180, senior, tackle; Darrell Hoffman, 6-1, 260, senior, tackle; David Urban, 5-8, 160, senior, at center.

Backfield for the Tigers will be Dan McKinney, 6-0, 140 junior, quarterback; Wayne Wolf, 6-0, 160, senior, wing back; Terry Burton, 5-9, 165 senior, fullback; and Jim LaCroix, 5-10, 145, junior, halfback.

Also referred back to the Police Committee were two separate sets of bids on furnishing the city with 200 parking permits. The committee is to analyze the bids which quoted a number of different prices on different models.

An ordinance requiring that the drivers of all motor vehicles on Granite City streets must possess a valid state driver's license was adopted on final passage. Police Chief Veizer explained the ordinance would provide means for enforcing in cases involving youngsters under the minimum age required by the state for a driver's license and would permit police to control use of different models.

Democrat-Oriented Group

Assails Smith Voting

A group formed by Democrats in 1953 issued a 17-page report this week assailing the attendance of U. S. Senator Ralph T. Smith at Senate votes and committee meetings during the first year after his appointment.

The Committee on Illinois Government, whose advisory board included State Treasurer Adlai E. Stevenson III, Smith's Nov. 3 opponent for the Senate, said Smith's non-attendance was surpassed "only by three seriously ill senators and one 'lame duck' senator."

Victor DeGrazia, chairman, noted that of the 35 senators up for re-election, only Senator Dodd participated less. However, DeGrazia omitted mention that Smith is the only senator who has had less than 14 months in which to participate in campaign appearances in his home state.

Others attending were Messrs. James Jackie Gattung, Lorraine Gremaud, Virginia Hill, Albert A. Robertson, Juanita Harrington, Helen T. Owen, Thelma Black, Pauline Holman, Mildred Moeban, Leo Rogers, Johanna Collet, Vivian Allen and Rose Marie Krystova.

County Lawyers Favor Monroe by Vote of 56-55

Members of the Madison County Bar Association favor retention of the three circuit court judges on the ballot in next Tuesday's general election, though Judge James O. Monroe was approved by only one vote, 56 to 55, according to results of a poll announced today.

Judge Joseph J. Barr won approval on a 111 to 2 count, me, Judge Harold R. Clark was given a 102 to 11 nod.

In a separate action, the Alton-Wood River Bar Association this week opposed retention of Judge Monroe. It led to an immediate response.

Judge Monroe said 26 lawyers attended the meeting. "Some were for me and some would not take me. Ten out of 80 is not the sense of the Great Alton Bar is nonsense."

"In a county-wide poll, I am told I have won, but certainly some other lawyers also oppose me. This does not bother me, nor surprise me. They have a right to oppose me. But the voters have a right to know why."

"Judges often have a duty to deny and disapprove. The losers and the lawyers don't like it, and their opposition is to be expected. Good judges may be known by the enemies they make. In a penitentiary poll, I couldn't get a vote."

"In my court, I have resisted the politics and pressures by which a very few politicians have tried to influence or intimidate the court. Their opposition is a sort of distinction, which indirectly certifies my independence and integrity."

"I trust that the thousands of litigants, witnesses and jurors who have watched me work day in and day out for 13 years will vote 'yes' for me on the green ballot to the right side of the machine and thus repudiate this little vendetta."

The county bar mailed 166 ballots to its members, and 121 were returned.

Bi-State Transit Loss

$40,384 During Month

The Bi-State Transit System operated at a deficit of $40,384 during September, though revenues were increased by the five-cent basic bus fare hike.

The system continued the trend of losing money during recent months. John Baine, director of the system, reported that it had an operating surplus of $17,535 for September, but retirement and depreciation fund payments were $257,919, causing the loss.

It is not looking for capital improvements, Baine said. Passenger revenue of $1,771,743 was nearly four per cent below estimates. Part of the loss was caused by the General Motors Corp. strike and delayed opening of East St. Louis schools.

Bi-State Agency commissioners authorized the purchase of 69 new buses at a cost of $2,400,000, to be paid with a federal grant of $1,640,000 and $200,000 in Bi-State funds.

will receive a monthly report showing the current balance of funds allocated in their budget."

New-Style Reports

Replying to a comment from Kismar who asked that an overall accounting of city funds be provided council members each month, Mayor Sasyk said the aldermen also will receive a revised and upgraded version of the monthly financial report presently issued. The new style statement will show current balances and expenditures in all city funds, he noted.

Madison City Clerk John N. Belkoff reported notification by the Explorer Pipeline Corp. of Tulsa that it is planning construction of a petroleum pipeline in the state.

According to a map provided by the corporation, City Attorney Nick Vassileff said the pipeline would not touch Madison property, crossing this area north of Granite City. The pipeline installation is scheduled for 10 a.m. Thursday, Nov. 5, in Springfield.

The city council approved setting the sum of $30,000 in motor fuel tax funds for maintenance of streets and highways during a period from January to December, 1971.

In other action, the council approved a resolution directing the city legal department to file suit in circuit court against the City of Springfield for trespass of property located at 1603 Second street, Madison.

Mayor Sasyk explained that the property "is in a deteriorated condition and needs to be demolished." He said several meetings have been held with the property owner. "But we can't seem to get together and this has been going on for several years," the mayor said. He said a fire recently occurred in a shed at the rear of the dwelling and the back yard has "weeds six feet high."

Table Resolution

A discussion relating to a total of $84,489 still owing Leo Wolf contracting firm for construction of the Diamond Plating building in Maeris Industrial Park resulted in tabling of a resolution to pay the amount. The action was taken until aldermen gain further information on the contracts involved.

Corporation Counsel John Gitchoff said that city officials were not aware the money was still outstanding until after the 1970-71 appropriation ordinance was filed. "Had we known this, we would have included the resolution," Gitchoff said. The resolution was a acknowledgment that the city owes Wolf the amount.

Mayor Sasyk said the structure should be completed within the next two weeks and explained that the original contract called for the city to pay for construction of the new plant building.

City Attorney Vassileff suggested: "If you have any doubts about this resolution, I would suggest you table it for now and look into it more thoroughly during the next two weeks and approve it at that time."

Prior to approving payment of the monthly bill, Kismar asked if a bill submitted by B. E. Hohl Co. meant that city-owned vehicles were continuing to be serviced and repaired outside the community. Mayor Sasyk replied that all city-owned vehicles had been advised that future repair work will be handled by Madison business firms.

Nameoki Probes

Blockage of Elm Slough

Investigation into complaints that drainage of Elm Slough into Horseshoe Lake is being blocked by dumping and by construction work was conducted by the Nameoki town board during regular meeting Monday.

Louis Whitsell, town clerk who presided at the meeting in the absence of Supervisor Harry Briggs, said a letter has been written to a trucking firm that has been dumping dirt in the slough area along Route 111 and that the Illinois Division of Highways has been requested to assist the township in solving drainage problems in that area.

Ed Moore, contractor who is building a number of business buildings in the area, addressed the meeting and said complete drainage facilities are being installed in connection with one of his projects and that his work in the area should provide better drainage than the area has had previously.

Whitsell reported that the board has not yet been able to meet with Sheriff George Musso to discuss a need for improved police protection and traffic control in the Nameoki township area.

The board received several complaints from residents of the township concerning alleged defects in a drainage ditch. Township Highway Commissioner Charles Hanks did not attend.

The meeting was attended by approximately 90 persons who overflowed the board meeting office. Several members of the audience commented that the board has adopted policies resulting in tax savings. The comment brought a round of applause from the audience.

Autumn Setting At Open House

Brightly colored name tags shaped like autumn leaves adorned the laps of over 1100 visitors at the annual Nameoki school open house Tuesday night. Parents and friends viewed the classrooms and met the teachers.

Rooms were decorated with fall flowers and handcraft work displays also included school work papers. Halloween decorations of jack-o-lanterns and witches were seen throughout the school.

The gymnasium was the scene of displays by the vocal department, Miss Jane Webb; Mildred Heider; instrumental music, Miss Lois Frith; speech department, Miss Alice Webb; physical education, Miss Eugenie Wetzell; and audio-visual materials used at the school, displayed by Mrs. Benish Smith, remedial reading teacher.

Large charts listing skills and concepts mastered at each level in reading and mathematics in the continuous progress program were shown in the gym. The charts will be placed in the halls for reference by the parents during parent-teacher conferences Nov. 15, 16, 17 and 18. Also in the gym were tables holding textbooks, workbooks and other materials.

A PTA program book was placed on each child's desk so that each family could receive a copy. Members of the committee include Mesdames Marian Spole, Katie Wilson, Marilyn Galsbraith, Cheryl Humphreys, Darlene Glasgow, Joanne Huels-schetter and Virginia Appeler. Several new pages have been added this year, including one on Red Skelton's explanation of the meaning of the words in the pledge of allegiance. Also shown are the names of congressmen and of past presidents of the Nameoki PTA.

Mrs. Carolyn Moske, chairman, and members of the membership committee registered new members. Mrs. Alice Selph took orders for gift wrapping paper and ribbon, the current PTA fund project.

Mrs. Wilson, president, had a table with Nameoki PTA scrapbooks from 1940 to 1970. Pamphlets on phases of PTA work were available to the parents, and she had arranged a poster of snapshots of PTA meetings and events.

A "movie matinee" is set for Halloween, Oct. 31, from 1 to 3 p.m. in the school gym. There will be supervision by adults; no food or drinks will be allowed in the gym. The program is sponsored by the Nameoki Teachers' Activity Fund and the PTA.

Activities celebrating Halloween will be held Friday afternoon at the school. All the children will be dismissed at 11:30 a.m. and parents are invited to watch the annual Halloween parade in the gym at 1 p.m. Following the parade, a class will hold a party, with games and refreshments. Room mothers will be in charge of the parties.

Granite City PRESS-RECORD

Webb Challenges Smith's Ideas of Detention Home

The juvenile detention home committee of the Madison county board of supervisors rejected claims that the new home is not working and is wasting the taxpayers' money during a meeting Monday at the courthouse in Edwardsville.

At the last county board meeting, Marshall Smith, assistant state's attorney, told the board that the home is not working right, that it is costing taxpayers $300,000 to $400,000 a year, that everyone is blaming each other and that it may as well be closed.

William Webb of Granite City township, committee chairman, said that Smith's statements "about a waste of money is ridiculous. The home is doing exactly what it is designed to do. It is doing exactly what we told the people it would do."

The detention home and the committee are doing their jobs," Webb continued, and "we can't help it if the courts don't move on juvenile cases."

Webb said at the meeting that further investigation showed that the locks will cost less than $3000 as the doors will be without handles on the inside at a savings of $9.50 per door.

Venice Police Charge 2 In Theft Attempts

Two East St. Louis men and an Eagle Park Acres man were charged with two counts of attempted theft and placed under $3000 bond each after they allegedly attempted to break into a cigarette vending machine Tuesday night and an ice machine Wednesday morning in Venice.

Isaiah Marchbanks, 21, and Charles Mosby, 22, of East St. Louis, and Elmo Williams, 24, of Eagle Park Acres, were arrested at 1:15 a.m. Wednesday at Tri-City Coal and Ice Co., 1427 Market streets. Police said they tried to break into the coin slot of the ice vending machine outside the building. A crow bar and two screwdrivers were found near the machine, officers reported.

They were taken to the Venice police station where police said witnesses identified them as the men who had attempted to break into a cigarette vending machine at the snack shop of the GM&O Railroad in the Venice yards at 11:35 p.m. Tuesday.

They were arraigned before Judge Joseph Kelleher in Granite City Wednesday where bond was set. They were transferred to the Madison county jail.

The leader, Mrs. Pat Polo, presided and reports were given by Mrs. Mary Free, Ruth Hubbard, Miss Ruth Stover and Mrs. Shirley Sobolewski.

A guest, Mrs. Maxine Hoelter, was welcomed. Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Backney, area captains for the Take Off Pounds women's and men's clubs. The couple addressed the group concerning the Area Recognition Day held Saturday in Belleville.

Members who attended the event gave reports, and it was announced that the new club banner won a third place ribbon in competition for the most appropriate use of the club name in the banner.

Those who attended included Mrs. Polo, honored for losing 106 pounds; Mrs. Diana Ragsdale, Whittle by Whittle summer queen; Mrs. Virginia Cotter, leader for 1970 with 49 pounds; and Mrs. Sharon Bricker, who graduated to Keep Off Pounds membership. All the women honored were presented with flowers.

Others at Area Day were Mesdames Evelyn Isaac, Thelma Pryor, Gloria Bennett, Carmen Bricker, Joanne Myers, Rosalie Bronnbauer, Mary Jane Sander and Jane Boyer.

A Halloween party was held, with members suitably dressed for the occasion. A parade was held, with prizes awarded. Winners were Mrs. Carmen Bricker, dressed as a clown; Mrs. Betty Young, as a witch; and Mrs. Jo Gipson, as a fisherman.

A dinner consisting of chicken and various salads was served by members of the losing team in the last club contest. Leader of the team was Mrs. Ragsdale. The tables were decorated in a Halloween theme and members announced their secret pals for the past month, with new names drawn.

FCC Cites Area Police, Charges Rule Violations

Granite City, Madison and Venice police received citations from the Federal Communications Commission Tuesday for alleged improper use of radios between the stations and patrol cars.

Granite City received citations alleging several cars broadcast off frequency and failed to use proper station identification time calls during the monitoring period. Officials said this is the first time in 23 years that the Granite City police have received such a citation.

Page 26 Thurs., Oct. 29, 1970

Venice police were cited in seven alleged violations in a one-hour monitoring period, charging extraneous talk in transmissions and failure to transmit identification time calls. Madison was cited for the same alleged violations.

The FCC monitored stations in the Quad-City area on Oct. 15 for about one hour for each station. The citations require that a representative of each police department submit a letter to the FCC explaining the violations.

Art Education Convention Set Nov. 11 in St. Louis

"Sights on the Seventies" will be the theme of the Illinois Art Education Association's annual convention, scheduled to be held this year at the Sheraton-Jefferson Hotel in St. Louis. The four-day conference will get under way on Wednesday, Nov. 11.

Eugene L. Aissai, art consultant for the Granite City school system and IAEA president, said the 1970 program "promises to be one of the most exciting, provocative presentations ever organized for a state meeting." Action, involvement and response are the key words this year, he noted. A large number of educators from various sections of Illinois have indicated they plan to take part in the conference, which also will focus delegates' attention on displays created by talented art students from Granite City and Belleville high schools.

The exhibition of student art work is being arranged by Robert Moske, Coolidge junior high school art instructor. The local art educator also plans to present daily slide showings in the Sheraton-Jefferson Hotel lobby featuring views of the large steel sculpture designed and erected by local students.

Wilson President Of Fleishman-Hillard Firm

Harry B. Wilson has been elected president of Fleishman, Hillard, Wilson & Ferguson, Inc., and John D. Graham has been named a senior partner of the firm, it was announced Tuesday by Alfred Fleishman, chairman of the board.

Wilson succeeds Robert E. Hillard, who was elected vice-president of the board with responsibility for the internal operations of the St. Louis-based national public relations firm. The company represents several Quad-City industries.

The new president announced that the firm will resume its original name of Fleishman-Hillard, Inc.

"We changed to Fleishman, Hillard, Wilson & Ferguson two years ago in recognition of our senior partners, Wilson said. "However, a longer name would be cumbersome, and we anticipate further expansion. The simplest solution is to return to the name we had for more than two decades."

Expansion by the firm has increased its service activity by over 30%.

Wilson, formerly a reporter for the Kansas City Star and then a political columnist for the Globe-Democrat, joined Fleishman-Hillard in 1953 and became a senior partner in 1957.

He served in the Navy during world war II and graduated from St. Louis University. Graham, formerly public relations director of the St. Louis Metropolitan YMCA, joined Fleishman-Hillard five years ago. He graduated from the University of Missouri in 1959 and began his professional career as an editor for Hallmark Cards, Inc., in Kansas City.

In addition to Graham, the senior partners of Fleishman-Hillard are Gary W. Ferguson, Wilson, Fleishman and Hillard. Its professional staff also includes Julian K. Beisman, director of production; Ruth K. Jacobson, director of special events; Raymond B. Molitor, senior consultant; James P. Gillick, accounts manager; G. W. Collins Jr., art director; and Robert T. Briggs, Donna S. Charron, Ann G. Daly, R. Pullerton, Place and N. Phillips Weinbach.

DeMolay Congress Set for Peoria; 23 Attend Session

Plans for a one-day DeMolay Congress to be held Nov. 15 at Peoria were outlined by Ron Fullerton, state master counselor, at a Southern Illinois DeMolay jurisdictional meeting held at the Edwardsville chapter this week.

Fullerton also spoke in detail on the state DeMolay program. Other state leaders at the session were Chuck Hileman, state senior counselor, and Edward C. Bieser, executive officer.

The meeting was held in the Lovejoy Library at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern following devotional services at the Edwardsville Temple and a dinner served by the Edwardsville Mothers Club.

The business meeting was adjourned to the recreation area of the University Center. The local James Stuart chapter is to host the next jurisdictional meeting in January.

Twenty-three local DeMolays attended the meet. They are Paul Boyer, master counselor, Hiram Abbott, Tom Alfaro, Gary Bogovich, Rick Brown, Bob Carson, Steven Brechert, Earl Fanning, Chuck Harrison, Bruce Hawkins, Chuck Hileman, Robert Hollenbeck, Ron Jones, William Karus, Robert Kenney, Gerald Lackey, Tom Layman, Ed Meyer, Bill Wittkamp, David Schilling, Tom Welch, James Young and John Young.

They were accompanied by advisors Charles Meyer and Gilbert Watson.

ISU Tuition to be Hiked $75 a Semester

Public higher education in Illinois is becoming increasingly costly and is a matter of concern to parents, students and educators alike.

Officials at Illinois State University, in a communication being sent to parents of students, are pointing out that tuition at ISU will rise by $75 the second semester for all in-state students, with additional costs depending on textbook purchases.

Indications are that the rise will continue. Recent communications from the Board of Higher Education and the Legislature point toward future increases until students share the instructional cost of their education to the extent of 33% if they are Illinois residents and 100% if they are out-of-state residents. At present, this cost is figured at about $1200 at Illinois State.

Tuition for in-state students at ISU will go from $97.50 this semester to $172.50 for the second semester. Other public institutions in Illinois have similar tuition levels. Thus far, tuition cost for the fall of 1971 has not yet been determined. Tuition for out-of-state students was increased from $338 to $532.50 this past fall and will remain the same for the second term. Part-time tuition for resident students will increase from $15 to $27 per hour for the second semester.

Miss Clark to Play Top Role at SIU-SW

Jo Ann Clark of Granite City will play the major role of Katrin in Bertolt Brecht's "Mother Courage" to be presented at the 8:15 p.m. Nov. 10-14 by the University theater at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern in the Communications building theater. Admission is free.

Ann Zimmer of Granite City will play multiple roles, and among area youths participating will be Lori Malzynek and Renee Malzynek of Granite City.

Theme of the play is the German dramatist's statement on the vicious relationship between war and business. Brecht uses Mother Courage and her figure representing those opportunists who are quick to make profit out of war.

Holt Named Chairman Of McKendree Committee

B. J. Holt, Belleville, has been elected chairman of the development committee of the McKendree College board of trustees, according to an announcement by Board Chairman Charles L. Daily. Holt, senior vice-president of the Edgemont Bank and Trust Co. of East St. Louis, also has been elected to the McKendree board. He has been active in fund raising for the college during recent years and was the unanimous choice of the development committee when Daily resigned as committee chairman since he had been elected to the board's top position in August.

Masquers Speak to 140 At Young Life Meeting

A crowd of 140 youths representing Young Life were on hand last week for a presentation by the Masquers Organization, an area group of actors and orators.

Members of the Masquers attending included Ronald Pennell, an English and speech teacher at the local high school, and Mr. and Mrs. John Mefford.

In a 30-minute program both men spoke to the youths on the importance of their contributions to as well as accomplishments in life.

The theme of the program was to stress the divinity within each individual and how he should relate this gift to his personal life.

The program was concluded by Mrs. Mefford who performed the solo, "Climb Every Mountain," accompanied by Miss Carolyn Jenkins on piano.

The Masquers Organization also gave away to the youths 25 sets of tickets, each of which granted them free entrance to four of the up-coming Masquers plays to be performed in Collinsville. The retail value of these tickets amounted to $80.

A brief presentation was given earlier by the newly formed Young Life quintet, four of whom are belonging to the New Life singers group.

The next Young Life-sponsored event will be this year's second 5th Quarter to be held tomorrow night immediately following the Homecoming football game here against the Edwardsville Tigers.

A full meal will be served and skits honoring the GCHS cheerleading squad and the Red Pepper board members will be presented. Trophies will also be presented to outstanding cheerleaders.

The place is the First Assembly of God Church, 24th street and Grand avenue. The same admission price will be charged, 75 cents per person or $1.25 per couple.

50th Homecoming Set This Weekend at ISU

Illinois State University will observe its 50th annual homecoming celebration Friday and Saturday with a host of activities for returning alumni, students and area residents.

Headline attractions include the traditional parade and house decorations, a concert, dances, alumni get-togethers, a play and the afternoon football game with Indiana State as the opponent.

The weekend will signify the half-century mark for homecomings as a continuous event at Illinois State, with the beginning traced to 1921. There was one homecoming celebration in 1917, but the event did not take hold as an annual affair until after World War I.

Theme for the observance fits in with the date, "Halloween Heyday," and homecoming officials promised attractions that would appeal to youngsters and adults alike.

Student participation will set the stage for the weekend with the house decorations in the campus area Friday night and the homecoming parade at 9 a.m. Saturday morning around the campus and through the Normal business district.

Graduate Students to Lead Panel on Gifted

Carol Skinner of Granite City will be among five area graduate students in special education at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern who will lead a panel discussion at a state meeting of the Illinois Council of Exceptional Children Friday in Chicago.

The panel will discuss the topic "Gifted as Viewed Through Literature." Faye V. Shaffer, assistant professor of special education, will serve as an advisor and resource member of the panel.

A MESSAGE TO

THINKING VOTERS

FROM FRIENDS OF
SENATOR MERRILL OTTWEIN

Please don't be misled ... In these final days of the campaign ... There are many things we wanted to discuss in open debates but his opponent refused. These are a few of the things we wanted brought out:

1. Despite claims to the contrary, Merrill's opponent was actually the co-sponsor of income tax legislation for both individuals and corporations, HB 126 & 127. Both acts were tabled in committee over his objections in May 1969.
2. Despite claims to the contrary, Merrill exhibits fiscal responsibility. His opponent voted for practically every expenditure offered. He would have spent one billion dollars more than he would support with revenue. Is this fiscal responsibility?
3. Despite claims to the contrary, Merrill does not unthinkingly follow other leadership. He generally supports administration policy but has disagreed on many occasions. Against administration, he voted against aid to private education and against efforts to raise gas taxes to support mass transit, especially the Chicago Transit Authority. On the other hand, his opponent apparently follows even Chicago leadership, having voted for $25 million in gas tax diversion to aid the Chicago Transit Authority and against the so-called "Township Bill" at the suggestion of Chicago, after indicating to Madison County local officials that he would support them.

French Heritage Looms Large in Illinois History

Much of the historical heritage of Illinois comes to us from the French.

During the period from 1673 to 1765, which was known as the "French regime," Mother France sent not only priests, explorers and traders to our rivers, forests and prairies — but also settlers who created villages, in the spirit and image of those they had left in the mother country, at places like Cahokia, Kaskaskia, Prairie du Rocher and Peoria.

Fort de Chartres, as a matter of fact, was the last French fortification in North America to lower the French Tri-color.

The fort is four miles from Prairie du Rocher and was for many years the seat of both military and civil government in the Illinois country.

The reconstruction is being carried out on the original stone foundations. Shortly after Joliet and Father Marquette explored the Mississippi River area, La Salle came through and claimed the entire valley for France.

There were several forts, the first being damaged by flood waters. This stone fort was called "the most commodious and best built fort in North America."

After the Treaty of Paris in 1763, France ceded all the land it had claimed east of the Mississippi to England and English troops took possession in 1765. The post was renamed Fort Cavendish and became the seat of the British rule in Illinois until 1772 when the fort was abandoned.

Museum, Picnic Shelter There is an interesting museum in addition to the restored buildings and a picnic shelter in a shaded hollow to one side of the fort walls.

Just a few miles to the south, near Chester, is Fort Kaskaskia State Park.

Kaskaskia was once the commercial center of the area. It was the first state capital of Illinois, the seat of government during territorial days.

Of the original city, nothing remains. The earth works and foundations of the old fort, and the Pierre Menard home at the base of the hill on which the fort stood, are now across the river.

The Menard home is quite elegant and was called the Mount Vernon of Illinois.

Visitors are shown through the home, which has many original furnishings belonging to the state's first lieutenant governor, by a hostess familiar with the history of the home and the area.

Island Memorial Commemorating the vanished town, the state has built a memorial on Kaskaskia Island. Formerly when the Mississippi River changed its channel.

On the island is the "Liberty Bell of the West" sent by King Louis XV of France. The island is the only area of Illinois west of the Mississippi River. The only entrance

FORT DE CHARTRES. Its ramparts remind visitors of the age of French dominion over Illinois, 1673-1765. Located due south of the Quad-Cities.

Fort de Chartres was the last French fortification in North America.

is via a bridge from St. Mary's Mo.

Cahokia Courthouse One of the best known memorials in Illinois is the old Cahokia courthouse south of East St. Louis just off Illinois Highway 3.

This is probably the oldest private dwelling in mid-America, and certainly the oldest of all courthouses west of the Allegheny Mountains.

The building is thought to have been built about 1737. It is an excellent example of the French pioneer log house. The 1723 census showed only 12 white residents, but later Cahokia became the most populous of the French Mississippi River towns with more than 300 people.

Of the early French settlements in this area, Cahokia was the commercial center, Kaskaskia the agricultural, and Fort de Chartres the government headquarters.

Tires Punctured Three tires were punctured when Mrs. Sherrell Byrd, 545 Mercedia avenue, Venice, started her car at 1 p.m. Monday and ran over nails which had been set to intentionally damage the tires, police reported.

Disaster Action Team Hears Hospital Plans

A newly-created "Disaster Action Team," composed of number of patients would be skilled first aid workers, heard a detailed outline of St. Elizabeth Hospital's disaster preparedness plans and viewed movies filmed during various emergency exercises staged at the hospital, at a meeting of the DAT group Tuesday evening.

Speaking to 20 team members at the Granite City defense center, 1411 Nineteenth street, Bernard T. Pinney, St. Elizabeth's director of personnel administration and chief of the hospital's disaster preparedness program, narrated the films and explained the primary purpose of the drills and plan.

One aspect of the institution's emergency procedure involves tornado warnings during which three phases of the plan can be initiated by the hospital staff to protect patients and employees, Pinney said. Another segment of the preparedness guidelines, already in effect, concentrates on action to be taken in event of civil disorders.

The hospital's part in a community-wide disaster when extensive care of an overflow Action Team, composed of number of patients would be necessary also was discussed by the official, who said that all disaster preparedness plans have been coordinated with civil defense officials.

Mrs. Maxine Duniphan, head of the Disaster Action Team, said the primary function of the new squad is to provide immediate and temporary first aid to injured persons in any area of the community where disaster strikes. All DAT personnel have received complete training through the Red Cross first aid instruction program.

Among the guests at Monday's meeting was Floyd Eaton, a local ambulance driver and former Army medic, who will present a demonstration on methods of providing emergency splints for disaster victims at the DAT's next meeting.

Three-Auto Accident An auto driven by Jesse G. Phillips, 218 Briarcliff drive, struck the rear of a car driven by Alfred H. Buchanan, 3023 Marshall avenue, shoving it into the rear of another driven by Warren A. Follensbee, St. Louis county, at 1:10 p.m. Tuesday at Edwardsville and Nameok roads. Follensbee and Buchanan were stopped at the intersection.

16-69 is Age Range Of Students at ISU

Chances of students at Illinois State University this fall range from 16 to 69 and a total of 7384 of the 17,549 enrolled are on scholarships.

These facts are among those released today by the Office of Admissions and Records in a detailed analysis of the student body at ISU for the current semester.

Other data show that 2898 students — 1638 men and 1260 women are married; that there are 15,712 full-time students and 1837 part-time, and that they are enrolled for more than a quarter million credit hours.

Of the students on scholarship, the bulk of them — 5397 — have teacher education awards. Of the remainder, 885 are military scholarships, 144 General Assembly, 396 special education, 66 county, 150 foreign and 246 talent awards.

The major age categories of students fall in the 18 to 21 brackets. There are just two at age 16 and one at 69, although there are three students at the age of 65. To illustrate the fact that persons can begin their college careers at any age, there are five freshmen with ages between 54 and 58.

State Franchise Taxes Drop by $4.8 Million

Franchise taxes and fees totaling $388,592 were collected by the Corporation Division in September, according to figures released today by Secretary of State John W. Lewis.

The Division has collected $21,332,039.93 in the first nine months of 1970, a decrease of $4,509,064 from the $25,841,144 collected for the same period of 1969.

Secretary Lewis explained that the decrease in collections for 1970 has resulted from legislation which reduced the minimum franchise tax from $100 to $25.

New corporations formed and licensed in Illinois during September totaled 1106, an increase of 39 over the 1066 new corporations in September of 1969.

During the first nine months of this year, 9899 new corporations have been incorporated or licensed in Illinois. The 1970 total represents a decrease of 677 from the 10,566 new corporations registered for the same period of 1969. However, the 1970 total is 750 more than the number registered in the first nine months of 1968.

'Witches Watch' Set To Deter Pranksters

As an added deterrent against malicious 'Halloween' pranksters, the CBERTS Club, a group associated with the Granite City civil defense organization, will work closely during the coming weekend with the Granite City and Pontoon Beach police departments, it was reported this week.

The CBERTS Club, composed of Citizen Band radio operators, has agreed to patrol and observe certain areas of the community in a concentrated effort to prevent vandalism caused by pranksters bent on more serious forms of mischief than the usual trick or treaters, an official said.

During the "Witches Watch" project, the CBERT members will work hand-in-hand with local police, reporting incidents involving wanton vandalism to police headquarters. Regular patrolmen will handle any situation from that point, the CBERT officer said.

Twelve unmarked cars, equipped with CB radios and each manned by two club members, will keep a watchful eye in areas where vandalism has proved a problem in previous years.

Madison police officers also utilizing unmarked squad cars and personal vehicles, plus a "slight beefed-up force," also will be on special duty during the Halloween weekend, it was learned.

Permission has been received from the Madison county sheriff's office for the CBERTS group to patrol and report incidents from nearby areas in the county, an officer said.

State Has 5.3 Million Registered to Vote

Secretary of State John W. Lewis has announced that Illinois will have 10,916 election precincts for the general election next Tuesday and a total of 5,337,622 registered voters.

For the last comparable off-year general election of Nov. 8, 1968, there were 10,767 precincts and 5,341,722 registered voters. In the last general election, Nov. 5, 1968, there were 10,677 precincts and 5,454,371 registered voters.

Gordon Ropp Named to Agricultural Post

Gordon L. Ropp, a Normal dairy farmer who has been acting director of the Department of Agriculture since John W. Lewis was sworn in as secretary of state, has been named director of the department. Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie, who appointed him, said: "I am convinced he will command the confidence of the agricultural community."

Ropp has announced that the department will participate in the 1971 Mid-America Food Exhibit Apr. 12-17 at the U.S. Trade Center in Tokyo. The exhibit is sponsored by the Mid-America International Agriculture Council, a 12-state cooperative for trade expansion.

County board condones sheriff practice, but ...

Bowman criticizes free house, meals

ALTON EVENING TELEGRAPH And METRO EAST JOURNAL ENDORSE

Louis Bowman REPUBLICAN For Sheriff

FRIDAY, OCT. 23, 1970 -- ALTON EVENING TELEGRAPH SAYS:

Bowman offers more potential to providing the type of management needed in Madison County law enforcement.

In the sheriff's race, two experienced people are pitted against each other, one a professional policeman; the other a professional politician.

Louis Bowman of Alton served as Chief Investigator under the best sheriff Madison County has seen in many a year, Barney Fraundorf.

We feel Maeras, who sneaked into the treasurer's office when Stephen Kennedy died, would give us more of the format displayed by incumbent Sheriff George Musso, who is seeking a second term as treasurer.

Bowman has devoted fulltime to seeking the seat and shows imagination in proposing programs to give taxpayers sound value for dollars expended.

Bowman offers promise for change if elected. We feel voters should give him a chance.

METRO-EAST JOURNAL SAYS:
WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1970

For Madison sheriff, Louis Bowman

The choice for sheriff of Madison County is clear if not altogether simple.

Bowman, the Republican candidate, offers a more detailed and more imaginative program.

He proposes reorganizing the department to provide an administrative and record-keeping level, a police agent and community service force and a recruiting staff.

He would require not only physical but psychological tests, to ensure that deputies are suitable for law enforcement work.

He would provide 24-hour-a-day patrols and press for establishment of substations in the eastern part of the county, near Godfrey, and near Collinsville.

Bowman said the patrols and substations would position deputies to respond faster to calls, and in addition, their "viability" would help prevent crime before it happens.

Bowman's opposition cites the fact that he left the Alton department and was dropped from the staff of former Sheriff Barney Fraundorf.

Bowman said he and 21 others left the Alton department to protest serious problems in equipment and training and that his discharge from the county staff was forced by political concerns at the end of Fraundorf's term in office.

Bowman considers himself a professional policeman and doesn't intend to run for treasurer.

He has the ideas and the drive to make the office considerably more effective. We urge the election of Louis Bowman as sheriff of Madison County.

Fraundorf today has nothing but good to say about Bowman. He said his personal evaluation is that Bowman "is a very strong man and would make a strong sheriff. He's really got the stuff ... he was one of the leaders in solving 11 of 13 murder cases we had."

Seed Corn Labeling

Seed corn for 1971 planting must be labeled to show its percentage of T-cytoplasm, the type of seed most susceptible to the Southern corn leaf blight this season, according to Agriculture Director Gordon L. Ropp. Ropp emphasized, however, that "labeling one type of seed corn resistant to Southern leaf blight does not imply an endorsement by the Illinois Department of Agriculture." He said there would be insufficient resistant seed for next year's crop without using some T-cytoplasm seed and that farmers should select seed corn on local 1970 performances.

Amvet Auxiliary to See That Soldier Gets Mail

Thanks to Amvets Auxiliary Post 51, a Granite City soldier whose buddy wrote to the Press-Record reporting his friend never received mail from anywhere at home will get at least one cheerful Yuletide package and several other pieces of mail this Christmas.

The letter from the serviceman requesting mail for the Granite City was published in Monday's Press-Record. The names of the two men were not mentioned in the article to avoid possible embarrassment, but their addresses are included in the adjacent "Yule Mail Call" column.

The story brought a telephone call from Mrs. Charlene Sanders, SOS officer for Amvets Auxiliary Post 51, who sought further information about the local man.

The explained the veteran's auxiliary group has already prepared and mailed three Christmas packages to servicemen in Vietnam. A fourth parcel is ready to go and, as yet, is unassigned to a specific soldier, she added.

Will Send Package

"We read the letter and felt terrible about the soldier getting no mail. We would very much like to send the parcel to him," Mrs. Sanders said. The newspaper agreed to provide the soldier's name to the auxiliary officer.

The Yuletide package to be mailed this week contains such items as socks, candy, nuts and candies, sauces, greeting cards, instant cocoa and soft drinks, nail clippers, deodorants and other personal toiletries, toothbrushes and canned meats.

Also included in the parcel are several small paintbrushes used by servicemen to clean their M16 rifles, a hint that Mrs. Sanders said she read in the Press-Record last year as one item frequently requested by infantry troops.

Another caller inquiring about the serviceman without mail commented yesterday, "I don't have a son old enough to be in the Army, but I did have a husband in world war II and a brother, and I think it is awful people can't take a few minutes time to sit down and write a man in the service."

The caller also asked the man's name and said she was going to write him a letter—"just to show him that someone does care."

Sons in Vietnam

The families of two other servicemen whose addresses appear in today's "Yule Mail Call" list report their sons would enjoy hearing from friends here at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Welch, 2408 Delta avenue, wrote—"Our son is a Marine in Vietnam and we would appreciate all mail that would be sent to him. Their son is Lance Corporal R. L. Welch serving with the First Marine Division.

Mr. and Mrs. William McGuire, 2524 Madison avenue, commented in a letter to the newspaper—"That's just so much for the Yule Mail Call. Our son, Private First Class Dennis W. McGuire, is serving in Vietnam. He has been there since last April."

"I know he would enjoy hearing from anyone, as he will be there during all the holidays and probably until sometime in the early spring," the mother wrote.

Additional "Yule Mail Call" lists will be published as information becomes available. It is suggested that readers clip-out and retain the lists as they appear.

Relatives, friends, church and service groups, former employers and other individuals are invited to provide the serviceman or woman's name for inclusion in the fifth annual "Yule Mail Call" program to be sponsored by the newspaper.

Send Cards, Packages

It hoped the pre-Christmas service "will encourage Quad-Cityans to add the local military personnel to their Christmas mailing lists and send greeting cards, letters or packages, thereby helping to cheer servicemen who are away from their homes and loved ones during the coming holiday season.

To ensure proper delivery, it is important to accurately list the serviceman's name, rank, serial number and address, including APO and FPO number. The area of service, such as Korea, Vietnam or Germany, may be listed in parenthesis after the address if desired.

Those submitting names and addresses of Armed Forces personnel serving at home or abroad are asked to send information by letter or postal card, or bring the written details to the Press-Record, 1815 Delmar avenue.

Instructions of mailing packages to overseas destinations, together with items most requested by servicemen will be published in a subsequent issue.

State to Build Two New Institutions

Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie last week announced plans for construction of two new state facilities for the disadvantaged.

A 400-bed Illinois Security Hospital is to be built at Chester to replace the present 280-bed fortress-like hospital built in 1889. General plans for the structure, which will contain the first minimum-security hospital facilities for women in Illinois history, will be submitted to architects in a design competition.

Construction has begun on the state's first Chicago-area temporary care center for abandoned and neglected children. Ogilvie said the center will care for 59 children, aged 6 through 17 years.

Damage Charge Filed

Joseph Buzar, 38, of 2223 Washington avenue, was arrested at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday at 21st street and Grand avenue on a warrant charging criminal damage to property. He posted $100 cash bail and was released pending a hearing.

Auto Stops, Struck

Stopping abruptly for another vehicle, the rear of an auto driven by Ralph W. Mayes, 401 St. Louis, was struck by a car driven by David P. Hawk, 4011 Melrose avenue, at 4:30 p.m. Tuesday at St. Clair avenue and Nameoki road.

Press-Record's... YULE MAIL CALL

(Clip and Save)

Quad-City servicemen and women stationed around the world, whose names and addresses are being published in each issue of the Press-Record as a special pre-Christmas public service. It is suggested that readers clip-out and retain the lists as they appear.

Local residents are invited to include the servicemen on their Christmas mailing list and send greeting cards, letters or packages, thereby helping to brighten the coming holiday season for military personnel who are away from their homes and families. Early mailing is recommended.

On State Farm Staff

James Charlton, Collinsville, has joined State Farm Fire and Casualty Company as a procedure specialist III in the systems and procedures department at the firm's home office in Bloomington. Charlton is a graduate of Granite City high school and Southern Illinois University.

Dixon Proposes Program of Aid to Local Governments

State Senator Alan J. Dixon of Belleville, Democratic candidate for state treasurer, has proposed a program in the state treasurer's office to assist local governments.

The Dixon plan would enable the treasurer's office to expand its voluntary program of advisory technical assistance to local governments in the field of municipal finance.

"I believe that the next state treasurer can expand on Adlai E. Stevenson III's fine record in that office by increasing cooperation with local governments," said Dixon.

The program would involve an educational program for local financial officers, assistance in the planning and information gathering stages of pending bond issues by local governments, the development of uniform financial reporting guidelines for bond offering statements by local units of government.

Dixon said the program was designed to upgrade the quality of local government. "It will be entirely voluntary. We want to use the experts our office has to help in whatever way we can. But no one will be forced to participate."

Experts Would Assist

Dixon said the program would involve seminars and training sessions and that experts in the field of municipal finance would be invited to attend.

"We have many of the country's foremost experts in municipal finance teaching at Illinois colleges and universities. Many of them have indicated a willingness to help. Too often we don't use the talent we have available. Instead of following Governor Ogilvie's practice of hiring expensive outside consultants firms every time we have a pressing state problem, we ought to use some of the experts we already have on the state payroll," Dixon explained.

"This program can save the taxpayers dollars," continued Dixon. "And I don't plan to increase the size of the treasurer's staff to do it either."

Howlett Trains Auditors

State Auditor Michael Howlett

presently has a program for training local auditors.

Dixon also said that steps should be taken to increase the flow of information between local, county and municipal treasurers and the state treasurer's office. "The state treasurer could notify local treasurers of which financial institutions are purchasing tax anticipation warrants, what interest rates are being charged and other data," he said.

Still Another Area of Increased cooperation should be our continuing move toward the goal of having a unified and integrated investment program for all public monies in Illinois," Dixon said.

Treasurer Stevenson has proposed that interested local governments use the facilities of the State Treasurer to join in the centralized sale of bonds. If enough local governments are interested, I would put such a program into practice for them."

Difficulty Selling Bonds

Dixon said that presently many local Illinois communities have difficulty marketing their bonds because major underwriters from lending institutions are reluctant to travel long distances to attend bond meetings of village or school districts with no assurance that their bid will be successful.

"Regular, centralized sale of bonds, while separate issues are awarded on a single day, would help attract the largest number of bidders," he said.

"Each award would be made individually by the local government. The taxpayers would benefit by increased competition among lenders for the bonds."

Of increased cooperation, Dixon said: "At the very least, the State Treasurer's office could be utilized to aid hard-pressed local taxing bodies in marketing their bonds within the state, especially school bonds."

Dixon said that he had discussed his proposal with State Treasurer Stevenson and found enthusiastic support for it.

Safety Orders Issued

The Illinois Department of Labor, as a public safety action, has instituted measures to insure rigid controls over all types of explosives used on construction projects and in special industrial operations. The orders, issued to factory and construction inspectors, included instructions in the distribution, accounting for, and around-the-clock protection of stocks of dynamite, blasting powder, plastics and any other types of explosives, fuse materials and detonating caps and other mechanisms.

St. Louis Land Bank To Cut Interest

Effective Monday The Federal Land Bank of St. Louis will reduce its interest rate from 9% to 8.50% per annum.

The 8.50% rate will be the current rate in effect on all new loans and will apply to all borrowers with 9% loans outstanding, provided they apply for the reduction, and agree to the 8.50% interest rate loan program.

The cut was announced by Glenn E. Heitz, president of The Federal Land Bank of St. Louis after the St. Louis Farm Credit Banks board of directors approved this rate reduction program. The rate reduction program was the result of the trend to lower cost of money borrowed by The Federal Land Bank through the sale of their bonds.

$750 Million Bond Issue Up To Voters Tuesday

Foremost interest in propositions on which voters will ballot in next Tuesday's election is being directed to the proposed $750 million bond issue to be used for a statewide fight against water pollution.

Campaigning for and against the proposed bond issue has been brisk with the number of favorable endorsements obviously in the majority. State officials particularly have taken a keen interest in the campaign and officialdom at the community and county level also appears heavily in favor of the proposition since it would offer a state source of revenue to build sewage treatment plants as part of the fight against dirty water.

The measure authorizes the financing of bonds totaling $750,000,000. Proceeds of the bond issue will be used for planning, financing and constructing municipal sewage treatment works and solid waste disposal facilities. These funds will provide the State portion for a program of joint State and Federal financing for these projects.

The bonds are to be fully retired within 25 years of the date of issue. They are to bear interest at a rate of not more than 7% per year. The issuance, sale and retirement of the bonds will be under the supervision and control of the Environmental Protection Agency, created by the "Environmental Protection Act", enacted by the 76th General Assembly.

The bonds are to be sold, after newspaper publication of notice, to the "highest and best bidder, for not less than their par value, upon sealed bids."

Payments on the principal and interest of the bonds are to be made from an Anti-Pollution Bond Retirement and Interest Fund in the State Treasury, as provided in the Act.

In order that this Bond Fund contain sufficient moneys to meet the required payments, the General Assembly is authorized to direct the transfer, from time to time, of State funds from the General Revenue Fund to this Bond Fund.

The General Revenue Fund is supported by a major portion of the tax revenues of the State. As directed by the bonds are to be the general obligation of the State of Illinois, the Act provides as additional security a property tax upon all real and personal property in the State subject to taxation in the event that the General Assembly would fail to transfer state funds from the General Revenue Fund to the Anti-Pollution Bond Retirement and Interest Fund.

The Act providing for the bond issue was given final force and effect only if it receives a majority of the votes cast for members of the General Assembly at the November, 1970 election.

Amendment to Banking Act Subject to Vote

Madison county voters will ballot Tuesday on a proposition to amend the Illinois Banking Act.

The proposal will be included among issues on the front of the voting machines in Quad-City and Madison county precincts.

The amendment covers both powers exercised and merger methods. It does not permit branch banking. The first section grants state banks the same legal powers as national banks without making it necessary to amend the Illinois Banking Act through legislation and a referendum each time new federal legislation is passed.

The proposal does not change existing tax rates or tax structures and is meant only to keep state banks on a competitive level with the national banks automatically.

Under the present system the national government has expanded the powers of the national banks at any time and it could be as long as two years before the Illinois general assembly meets and grants the same powers to the state banks subject to a referendum.

Approval of the Banking Act amendment requires approval by a majority of the votes cast on the question.

Personal Tax Depends Upon Voting Outcome

Among propositions upon which Madison county voters will ballot in Tuesday's general election is a constitutional amendment proposal that would, if approved, eliminate personal property valuations for all individuals.

The ballot will be on blue paper and will be the only instance of voting by paper ballot. All other propositions will be on the voting machines which are to be used in Madison county's election on Tuesday.

Other propositions on the vote machine will include the $750 million water pollution bond issue proposal and the proposed Banking Act amendment.

The proposal for retention of circuit judges also will be on the face of the voting machine, in a green background. All other propositions will be on pink background and the bond issue on white background. The names of candidates also will be on white background on the voting machine.

The proposal to eliminate personal property taxes requires a majority of the voters voting at the election, or two-thirds of the voters voting on the proposed amendment.

County Needs $54 Million To Fight Water Pollution

Clarence W. Klassen, director of the Illinois Environmental Agency, has called upon civil sanitary engineers to help clean up Illinois waterways in an article in which he estimates Madison county will need $54,432,000 to fight water pollution over the next ten years.

Klassen, in an article in the October edition of the Illinois Engineer, asked members of the Illinois Society of Professional Engineers to help the public understand their local sewage treatment problems.

Klassen said, "Professional engineering help is needed to tell the story of how every county in Illinois will benefit from passage of the 1970 Anti-Pollution Bond Act. The ISPE, largest engineering organization in the state, recently endorsed the bond proposal because it greatly reduces local community financial responsibility in building adequate sewage treatment facilities.

For Treatment Facilities
Klassen restated to the professional engineers the allocation of state money if the $750 million bond issue receives voter approval: $350 million will be used for sewage treatment facilities; $100 million will help build interceptors, pumping stations and waste transportation facilities; $100 million will be available for solid waste disposal.

With these state funds available, according to Klassen, municipalities will be eligible to qualify for federal grants up to 35 per cent of the project cost. A community receiving maximum state and federal aid will pay only 20 per cent of the cost.

Klassen estimated that needs for sewage works construction costs in Illinois counties between 1970 and 1980 will amount to $2,286,226,800. Of this amount, he wrote, Madison county will need an estimated $54,432,000 and the local county will need $63,504,000.

The amount needed for Cook county, Klassen estimated, is $1,132,144,000.

University Theater to Present 'Summertime'

Playwright Ron Cowen's "Summertime" will be presented at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern Nov. 27 and Nov. 28 by members of the University Theater.

Curtain time for the performances, under the direction of Stephen Archer, associate professor of speech and theater, is 8:15 p.m. in the studio theater (room 2015) of the Communications Building. Admission is free.

Debbie Barylski of Florissant, Mo., is cast as the girl, Donald Browning of Bethalto plays the part of the soldier.

County Group Objects To Olin Air Request

Objections have been filed by the sanitation and anti-pollution committee of the Madison county board of supervisors for a request to the state by Olin Industries of Alton for a variance to permit open burning.

Letters were written by Carl Buehler, Granite City assistant supervisor and committee chairman, to David Currie, chairman of the Illinois Pollution Control Board, and Clarence Klassen, director of the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency, informing them of the county's ordinance prohibiting open burning.

The letters also complained that county officials had not been informed by the state agency of the hearing on the request, pointing out that the state statute requires the agency to consider views of persons who might be adversely affected, and publishing of a notice in the area concerned.

Urges Bond Approval

Francis T. Mayo, Great Lakes Regional Director for the Federal Water Quality Administration has strongly endorsed passage of the water pollution bond issue which will be placed before Illinois voters on Tuesday.

Grants for Law Enforcement Equipment, Instruction Here

Twenty-five criminal justice improvement grants totaling $178,577 have been awarded to Illinois counties and municipalities by the Illinois Law Enforcement Commission under its Project Action Now.

Commission Chairman Arthur J. Bilek noted this week that under the Action Now Program, 100% funding is provided up to $10,000 for projects in police, community relations, criminal justice training and police management studies. Certain types of equipment purchases are funded on a 75% ILEC and 25% local matching basis, Bilek said.

Two of the current grants were awarded to multi-county regional planning areas. They are: Central Southeastern Illinois Law Enforcement Planning Commission (Richland, Crawford, White, Edwards, Wabash, Wayne, Lawrence and Jasper counties), $250 for a drug education program, and Six-County Law Enforcement Planning Commission (Pike, Calhoun, Greene, Jersey, Macoupin and Montgomery counties), $200 for a police management study.

Action Now grants to counties include six for equipment purchases: Cumberland, $220; Jackson, $201; Jefferson, $10,000; Madison, $22,163; Montgomery, $10,000; and Winnebago, $2,444.

Randolph county was awarded $5482 for a criminal justice training program, and three counties received grant approval for police management studies. They are Bond, $9500; Madison $9700 and Will County Law Enforcement Planning Commission, $10,000.

Nine of 13 grants awarded to municipalities were for equipment purchases. They are: Carle of Stream, $2615; Crete, $4229; Decatur, $3069; East Peoria, $10,000; Mazon, $1501; Morris, $10,000; South Elgin, $3804; Wheeling, $9878; and Woodstock, $3689.

CYS Training Program Awards for criminal justice training programs were approved for Evanston township high school, $1501; Coordinated Youth Services, Granite City, $5700; and the Family Services Association of Oak Park and River Forest, $2300.

Edison Park Home Lutheran Welfare Services of Illinois was awarded $6702 for a community relations study.

The Illinois Law Enforcement Commission, the state's official criminal justice planning and program funding agency, has awarded more than $22 million to state, regional and local agencies and some private organizations for criminal justice improvement programs.

The commission was created by Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie in January 1969. John F. X. Irving is the ILEC executive director.

Calvary Baptist OKs New Record Budget

A record budget of $72,179 was adopted this week by members of the Calvary Baptist Church, 3000 Washington Avenue. The new budget exceeds last year's expenditures by more than $10,000.

One of the largest expenditures in the new budget is approximately $13,000 the congregation has pledged to the Missions. This sum will be used not only for local mission work, but a portion will be pooled with resources from thousands of other Baptist churches throughout the country to support mission programs, educational services and benevolent projects in the United States and around the world.

The adoption of this record budget marks the beginning of a special emphasis on Christian Stewardship in the Church. The purpose of the campaign, known as the "If You Really Care—Share!" emphasis, is to challenge each member of the Church to greater levels of commitment in stewardship of material possessions, church leader said.

Other events in the emphasis include tithing demonstration day, a budget fair, and dedication day. On demonstration day each member of the church and Sunday School will be asked to make a special effort to give a tenth of his income to the Church. The budget fair, complete with clowns, barkers and booths will be a way of showing the different areas of expenditures in the budget. A children's party will be held in conjunction with the fair. Dedication day is set aside for subscribing the new church budget and a renewed dedication of the Membership.

Illinois Power To Build Lake, New Power Plant

Illinois Power Company today announced a plan to develop a 5000 acre lake in DeWitt County for the site of a major electric power plant.

Wendell J. Kelley, president of Illinois Power, told of the plan at a gathering here of farm, business and civic leaders, and county and city officials of Clinton, DeWitt County, and nearby areas.

The plan calls for creation of the lake by impounding the waters of Salt Creek and the north fork of Salt Creek. The proposed lake would have a shoreline of approximately 130 miles. The two basins of the lake would extend approximately 14 miles along the course of Salt Creek, northeast from Clinton to near Farmer City, and seven miles along the north branch, in a northern direction from Clinton.

The lake would be among the larger man-made lakes in Illinois. The generating station would be placed between the two arms of the lake, near their confluence east of Clinton.

Mr. Kelley emphasized that the planning is in its initial stages, and that no moves have yet been made to obtain the needed land.

"At this time we want only to inform the people of this area of our plans," he said. "This site is one of several we have had under study for plant siting of the future—in the late 1970's or early 1980's. Final decision will rest of course on the availability and cost of the land and the acceptance of the plan by the people of Clinton, DeWitt County, and surrounding areas."

Most of the lake areas will be relatively remote from the actual plant site, it was pointed out. The shoreline would be suitable to recreational and fishing areas, game preserves, public and private camping areas, and ecological study areas.

While the lake would not encroach on present municipal boundaries, it would be readily accessible from U. S. routes 54 and 150, Interstate 74, and Illinois routes 10 and 48.

Nearby cities and towns would be Clinton, Wapella, Heyworth, LeRoy, Farmer City, DeWitt, Deland, Weldon, Cisco, Argenta, Lane, Maroa, and Kennett.

At this time the type of power plant, the size of units, and the fuel, are not decided, Mr. Kelley said. The impounded water—about 25,000,000 gallons—is estimated to be able to support a total plant of about 4,000,000 kilowatts capacity.

Ground and aerial surveys of the area will begin in about four weeks, Mr. Kelley said. The dam, to be placed at a point below the confluence of Salt Creek and the north fork, will be at an elevation of 700 feet above sea level. The lake level will be at 690 feet. The lake depth will range up to 40 feet at points.

Downstream, a guaranteed flow of at least five cubic feet of water per second will be provided at all times. The minimum discharge into this area at the present time is 0.7 cubic feet per second, studies show. The low mark was set in October of 1954. The minimum downstream discharge thus will be guaranteed at more than seven times that amount, IP engineers said, and will be more than the minimum 30 days consecutive low of record.

Miss Hotz Reappointed State Board Secretary

Miss Eulalia Hotz, Madison county clerk, has been reappointed secretary of the state auditor's County Audit Advisory Board, according to announcement by Michael J. Howlett, state auditor of public accounts.

The County Audit Advisory Board was established under state statutes adopted in 1963, which requires all county governments to file annual financial reports with the state auditor's office.

Its members assist the auditor in seeking ways of improving county government accounting practices and financial reporting and in suggesting legislation to effect better functioning of government.

Others selected to serve as officers of the board include Owen Pollard of Lincolnshire in Lake County, chairman; and William A. Kealey, St. Clair county auditor, vice-chairman.

SLAVIC BIBLIOGRAPHER Rudolph Wierer, right, at the SIU-SW Lovejoy Library, points to the title page of a publication printed in 1924 in commemoration of the 30th anniversary of the Slovenia Catholic Society. John Abbott, director of the library, is holding the volume. Looking on are Mr. and Mrs. John Spiller of St. Louis. Spiller is president of the Slavic and East European Friends of SIU-SW and Mrs. Spiller writes a column on Slovene news for the Prosveda, published in Chicago.

200 Slovenian Books
 Received by SIU-SW

Two hundred volumes of Slovenian books from the private library of the late Frank Zaitz of Chicago have been presented to SIU-SW's Lovejoy Library by his widow, Angela Zaitz.

Zaitz, who came to this country in 1907, was employed in 1918 in the editorial department of the daily newspaper Prosveda and the monthly magazine, Voice of America, both published in Chicago.

In 1932, he became editor-in-chief of Prosveda, largest Slovene paper in America, and was forced to resign in 1938 because of ill health. He assisted in the editorial department until his death in 1967.

The Lovejoy Library came to Mrs. Zaitz' attention through a column entitled "St. Louis News" published regularly in Prosveda.

The column is written by Mrs. John Spiller, St. Louis, whose husband is president of the Slavic and East European Friends of SIU-SW. Mrs. Spiller mentioned the growing Slavic library at the local campus in her column, attracting the attention of Mrs. Zaitz.

Almanacs, Biographies
 At least one-third of the collection was published in this country, according to John Abbott, director of Lovejoy Library.

Among the 200 volumes contributed by Mrs. Zaitz are almanacs covering more than 30 years, three Slovene dictionaries, biographies of famous Slovenian authors, books describing

Local GIs to Participate In NATO Test in Germany

Three Quad-City servicemen are among 11,000 troops of the First Infantry Division now in Germany for Exercise Reforger II, designed to test U. S. Army deployment from stateside bases in defending Western Europe with NATO forces.

The local men are Army Sgt. Kenneth A. Lewis, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Lewis, 1731 Spruce street; Specialist Six Bobby J. Leek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Leek, 2027 East 20th street; and Pfc. Jonathan A. Thompson, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Thompson, 1661 Fourth street, Madison.

The soldiers departed with their units from Fort Riley, Kan., to be airlifted to Germany from Forbes Air Force Base in Topeka, Kan. The units landed at one of three West German Airfields—Rhein Main, Ramstein or Ederberg.

A few hours later, the troops picked up weapons, tanks and armored personnel carriers, which had been pre-positioned in Europe, and left for the exercise site near the Czechoslovakian border.

During the five-day training exercise, the "Big Red One" Division opposed a series of forces from the Third Infantry Division, regularly stationed in Germany, and the German 5th Panzer Grenadier Brigade.

A similar deployment exercise—Reforger I—was held in Germany in January, 1969. Members of the First Infantry are scheduled to return to Fort Riley in late October and Nov.

Sgt. Lewis is assigned to the Division's Battery C, 1st Battalion, 7th Artillery, with Pfc. Thompson a member of Battery A in the same battalion. Specialist Leek, a technical instructor, is based with Headquarters Company of the First Division at Fort Riley. His wife, Rosemary, resides in Junction City, Kan.

New Secy. of State to Use Existing Forms

Determined that operational changes in the Office of the Secretary of State be conducted in an orderly and efficient manner, Secretary John W. Lewis has ordered that existing inventories of driver license applications, renewal notices and other printed material—bearing the name of the late Secretary of State Paul Powell—be fully utilized.

Lewis said, "The director relates to 45 separate printing orders, placed in the six weeks preceding the death of Mr. Powell, totaling $107,404.12. The largest individual order covered the printing of 2-million, title applications for motor vehicles."

Lewis said, "I am determined that the Secretary of State's office will be operated in a business-like manner. Whomever will be seen on various printed matter is rather superficial. My responsibility and primary concern is to serve the people of our state efficiently and economically."

Several of the more recent printing orders, not yet completed, have been revised to designate the new Secretary of State, Lewis said, but "nothing useable will be scrapped." In a few instances, where confusion might conceivably arise, the name of the late Secretary of State has been blocked out with over-printing.

M. A. Thompson At State Managers Meet

M. A. Thompson, manager of the Illinois State Employment Service here, is attending the ISES Managers' Meeting in Springfield which opened Tuesday and continues through today.

According to John M. Linton, administrator of the Bureau of Employment Security, and Walter E. Parker, Superintendent of the Illinois State Employment Service, the meeting's purpose is to bring Employment Service Office Managers and top administrative staff up to date on current and proposed policies, procedures and developments in the field of manpower administration.

James W. Cook, Governor Ogilvie's State Manpower Coordinator, headed a list of prominent speakers and governmental leaders who addressed the sessions. Others appearing were Barney J. Grabiec, director of the Illinois Department of Labor, William B. Lewis, Regional Manpower Administrator, U. S. Department of Labor, Harold O. Swank, Illinois Director of Public Aid, and Peter B. Bennett, director of the Illinois Department of Corrections.

Administrator Linton delivered the opening message of the conference and Superintendent Parker was general chairman of the meeting.

School Buses Travel Half Billion Miles in 7 Years

Illinois school buses transported more than 4 billion miles during the past seven years, according to figures released by the Office of Ray Page, Illinois Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The safety record during this period is one of the best in the nation, according to national safety officials. During this period two pupil fatalities have been recorded.

Figures for the last school year revealed 682,346 students were transported daily to and from school. Of this number, 89,128 were private or parochial school students. Daily miles recorded were 42,631 and the annual total of miles traveled was 75,844,553 miles.

School buses are inspected twice a year. Superintendent Page said, "Illinois can be proud of its safety record. Our children are our first concern. We must do everything possible to keep our children safe. We can not put a price tag on the life of a child."

Develop Early Warning. The Office of Secretary of State also has innovated another safety measure to protect the school children of Illinois. An "Early Warning" system has been implemented within the Drivers License Division, constantly monitored by a computer, to provide additional safeguards for school children.

VOTERS NOTICE!

"PAT URBAN's attitude and his statements have angered her so that she did not want to serve him," says Miss Hotz, according to the Metro East Journal of October 21, 1970.

This is character assassination, pure malarky, and a flimsy excuse to refuse to open the records, I asked to see for you, YOU have a right to know.

If your attitude and statements do not suit the County Clerk, she won't serve you. She sets her standards to fit the occasion.

She is the master and you are the servant, when the reverse should be the case. Is this not refusal and FAILURE to perform the duties of her office? Is it not illegal and a violation of the duties of her office? Is it not illegal and a violation of her oath of office? Do you think a person with such views should hold public office? What if all public officials followed this policy? It might be nice if the Internal Revenue Service did. If you want County Clerk service, you may have to give up some of your rights as a Citizen.

Miss Hotz adopted my program and says a Computer is needed, but there is no room for it, and the Board of Supervisors can't afford it. This is more malarky. If she has ever recommended any constructive program, and was turned down, I have never heard about it. She has had several decades of time to do so. According to the Granite City Press-Record of October 22, 1970, Madison County has a surplus of funds of over $8,000,000.00. So it is not poverty stricken. (Supervisor Rodger Elbe wanted to do something about it.) And besides, a computer would reduce costs. As to the "No Room for it" bit, computers, rather than take up room, would make more room available and eliminate some of the need for more millions of dollars for new buildings. Also, in the center of the Court House, there is open space, 42 feet by 22 feet, that serves no useful purpose and needs only floor and inside walls. The same amount of space is available on all THREE floors or over 720 square feet. When a computer moves in, desks go out and more room is made. This is a proven fact in private enterprise.

As to the last minute and too late 735 pound obsolete voting machines, the County Clerk now says, it was the County Board. It is the duty of the County Clerk, and not the County Board to conduct County Wide Elections and to recommend and to request the necessary appropriations in time to do the job right. If elected, I would come and request that the County Board not purchase these machines for some $850,000 and present my program and recommendations for all the Court House Offices.

The Court House lacks leadership. The Court House needs fresh new leadership and I am anxious to accept the challenge to provide it in a business like way.

I will not become angry and refuse to serve you if you ask to see the records. Your attitude and your statements is your personal business and not mine.

This is a non-partisan issue of concern to every Citizen. I battle not for myself, but for all of you.

Fees from reassignment applications for 1971 are running over $1 million ahead of the figure reached at this time a year ago, while the number of applications is up by nearly 50,000.

Secretary of State John W. Lewis, in making the announcement, said that $16,065,474 has been deposited in the state treasury. At this time last year $15,069,967 had been deposited, or $1,095,507 less than the current total.

The number of applications for reassignment has reached 601,129, or 48,346 more than last year's Oct. 22 total of 552,783.

OCTOBER 29, 1920

Edward R. Swanson, former president of the Granite City Commercial club, has been chosen to be superintendent of the Howe Safety Appliance Co. of Granite City. Assistant plant superintendent of the Commonwealth Steel Co. here until two years ago, he went with R. A. Bull to a steel plant in Pittsburgh at that time.

The Retail Clerks union will give its sixth annual dance at the Labor Temple hall Thanksgiving night.

Ground has been broken for the new Granite City Community high school. The building will have an estimated worth of $285,000 and will be 225,000 sq. ft. when completed. The district has acquired a large tract of land for the school, and eventually an athletic field will be constructed and the grounds beautified. W. F. Goulette is principal and members of the board of education are W. C. Urban, R. H. Lamer, W. W. Kerch and F. W. Kottmeier.

25 Years Ago Madison School Vote Carries, 4-1

OCTOBER 29, 1945

Madison school district residents voted by a 4-1 margin to issue $60,000 worth of bonds to purchase a 20-acre tract and construct a modern athletic field. The vote was between Farish street and the Litchfield & Madison railroad yards north of Fourth street and south of Harris street. The bonds will bear 2% interest and are to be retired in annual $15,000 installments between 1957 and 1962.

The Malki-Toy Co., Granite City, has grown to a nationwide business since being founded in 1937 by the late Walter R. Benjamin. The plant, at 5800 Illinois avenue, sells several hundred thousand sets of wooden construction toys each year; 90% of the business is with chain stores, wholesalers and department stores.

A photograph of Miss Audrey Romann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Romann, Rural Route One, has won a photo contest sponsored by the 88th Infantry in Germany. She is a sophomore at Lindenwood College, St. Louis.

Among the gala events of the Halloween season in Madison was a party and barbecue at which Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Marshall of Fourth street were hosts at their country home. Outdoor games were enjoyed and a hot lunch was served. Prize winners were Jerry Greenlee and Tommy Layman. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Homer Webb and daughter, Jackie, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Fogle and daughter, Karen, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Perry and daughter, Frankie, Mrs. Fay Little and daughter, Jean, Mrs. Ruth Layman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Delp and Mrs. Belle Clemmons.

OPPORTUNITY VOTED FOR LARGE EXPENDITURES

To the Editor:
My movement in a letter declining the challenge to openly debate asked some pointed questions that I would like to answer in this open letter.

1. I frankly don't know what he's talking about regarding the question of whether or not I did not support a tax even 60¢ higher than what we have. One of his researchers or writers slipped.

2. With proper controls, there is no special need to tax a business issue. Sure, the funds are tempting to some, I suppose. But Mr. Vadablene himself voted for others, such as the One Billion 1967 Natural Resources Bond Issue Act and the recently enacted $750 million Anti-War Pollution Bond Issue Act.

Regarding the necessity, I only know that the "secondary revenue system" planned in Illinois is now totally scrapped because the bond issue is invalid.

I also know that with the additional highway taxes, we are getting a great deal of money improvement over other important Madison county is getting 74.35 miles of repayment this year, ten times the ten-year average of 4.5 miles per year, and highway deaths in Illinois have gone down for the first time in years.

3. Regarding financial discipline, I would question why he hasn't done it before now if he thinks it's a good idea, or why it isn't until after election. In his first two terms, he hasn't even tried to publish it voluntarily. I don't believe the legislature is important, as long as it's adequate to support your family and is not from sources causing biased voting.

Campaign contributions are far more important. We are publishing campaign contributions received in this campaign. Citizens have a right to do the same. It will be interesting to see if he responds.

WANTS COMPUTER FOR COUNTY CLERKS RECORDS
To the Editor:

My "attitude and statements angered" Miss Holt, Madison county clerk. This is a flimsy excuse for her to refuse to open records which I had asked to see for the benefit of the public.

Citizens have a right to know. Is it not refusal to perform duties of her office? What if all public officials followed this policy?

Miss Holt has adopted my program and says a computer is needed but that there is no room for it and that the board of supervisors cannot afford it. This is malarky.

The tax has been unevenly administered in various counties and the loss of its revenue to taxing agencies is expected to be partly offset by supplemental funds from the state government.

WARMS UP DEMOCRATS ACHIEVE PROSPERITY
To the Editor:

I have read and heard a lot about Democratic prosperity, so let's check the record. President Roosevelt (Dem.), second world war, President Truman (Dem.) second world war, President Eisenhower (Rep.) second world war, President Johnson (Dem.) the worst war in history, Vietnam.

Is this really a record of prosperity? How many lives were lost, and how many disabled veterans have we?

Is this really a record to be proud of? Is this really a record of prosperity? Or is this really war prosperity?

Adults in the Forefront of Those Leading Young Americans Astray

To the Editor:
Recently one of your readers expressed some concern about the teenagers, their supposed lack of responsibility and their lack of respect for others.

It seems that when anything goes wrong in our community we openly criticize our youth. It is they who are blamed even when not in error.

It is the "group" always who must take the criticism for crimes. If their hair is a little longer than we feel it should be, they are immediately "typed."

On all sides we hear adults deploring the activities of teenagers. They blame the teenagers for the increase in crime, for our widespread immorality, and call them a rebellious generation. But can they do so rightly?

It is admitted that arrests of youths under 18 for serious offenses have increased 46% in seven years, and 19% for children from 10 to 17.

But arrests of persons under 18 made up only 23% of the total police arrests in 1969. And even though this figure seems high—and is much too high, we all admit—we may be reassured to know that only 5% of the total youth population in the country came before the courts for serious criminal acts.

Compare that 5% with the millions of youths who are useful citizens, active church workers, Boy Scouts and participants in a host of other wholesome activities.

The fact is that 95% of our young people do not get involved in serious trouble. The few who should the finger of blame be pointed so persistently at teenagers as a class?

Teenagers live in a world made by adults, and their standards reflect those of their elders. They can't help it. They are blamed for the sin in the world, for most of it is not of their making.

The adults, not the youth, set the pattern of major crime in America—77% of it.

It is the adults who publish pornographic books and magazines, not the youth.

The sensual and debasing movies are not the work of teenagers, either, nor is the production, nor the acting, nor the distribution.

Can the youth be blamed for unwholesome radio and TV programs or the suggestive Broadway plays that tour the nation? Are they responsible for the shutting down of empty churches, or the denial of communion to clergymen who claim that God is dead?

Who operate the houses of ill fame? Not the teenagers.

Who "rig" the elections, make the election "payoffs" and bribe receptive police officers? Not the teenagers.

And who are they who devise sports bribes, and persuade youngsters on the team to play a game for a certain consideration?

Who defrauds the governments in their tax returns? Who are the embezzlers, the bank robbers and the payroll snatchers?

What group diverts government funds to personal use? Who robs the mail? Who are convicted of price fixing?

Who foment strikes and riots? Who are the anarchists and anarchists?

Who are the heaviest drinkers and consume most of the alcoholic beverages? Who bring liquor into the home for family consumption? Who spends their incomes at the gambling tables?

Who fights the effort to protect the public from cancer and other smoking-induced ills? Who forms the tobacco lobby in Washington?

Who is responsible for our record divorce rate, our abandoned families and the worst delinquency examples? None of this can be laid at the door of our teenagers.

But, on the other hand, who are the best churchgoers in America? The teenagers.

Who are setting new and unheard-of records in scholarship? The teenagers.

Who are filling most missions in the churches? And who are fighting the battles in Vietnam? Before we lay too much stress on the downward trend of 5% of the teenagers, let us pay some heed to the adults who lead them astray.

UNITED STATES SENATOR — The Press-Record endorses the incumbent senator, Ralph Tyler Smith (R, Alton), a native Granite Cityan.

Senator Smith's Skill, Understanding Of Legislative Needs Justify His Election

Another fact is the name of his opponent, State Treasurer Adlai Stevenson III, the son and grandson of widely known public officials and himself the top vote-getter in two statewide elections during the 1960s.

Stevenson does not have the charisma of his father, the 1948-52 Illinois governor and 1952-56 Democratic presidential standard-bearer, but there is a physical resemblance and he has begun to use such familiar phrases as "talking sense to the voters." Undoubtedly, many voters are hopeful that in the present Adlai they have another candidate capable of making a big and constructive impact on the future course of events in the nation.

We agree that Candidate Stevenson does have potential. Even if he is not the winner Nov. 3, we think ways will be found for him to serve the public through elective and appointive offices during the 1970s and 1980s.

We know Ralph Smith well and we also see future potential in him, despite his more modest record. He has the experience and the hurdle of the election test only 14 months after his appointment, he has the good sense and parliamentary savvy to eventually reach the same level as his father, the 1948-52 Illinois governor and 1952-56 Democratic presidential standard-bearer, but there is a physical resemblance and he has begun to use such familiar phrases as "talking sense to the voters." Undoubtedly, many voters are hopeful that in the present Adlai they have another candidate capable of making a big and constructive impact on the future course of events in the nation.

His use of simplified campaign messages and his emphasis on law enforcement and campus stability are being utilized by some to portray Senator Smith as a mud-slinger. Interestingly, his opponent also has received a number of pointed and sometimes inaccurate barbs in recent weeks while escaping similar condemnation for his tactics. The fatigue and frustrations of the campaign may well be taking a toll on both; a column in the liberal-leaning Washington Post has taken Mr. Smith to task and also assailed Mr. Stevenson for his persistent dodging of a "liberal" label in the electoral process.

If the campaign pressure was off, the average voter in a chat with either candidate undoubtedly would find him to be an informed individual, deeply concerned with finding ways to improve governmental policies and performance. Since this is not going to be possible, voters must do the best job of selecting that they can, aware that the election is a choice between two imperfect candidates.

1. We rate Mr. Smith first in domestic issues due to his broad knowledge and expertise, proven over nearly two decades of energetic, effective service.

2. We favor Senator Smith as much more likely to contain the dovish Illinois needs, some of which have been overlooked for far too long. Illinois already has a Chicago-based U.S. senator, Charles H. Percy. Try as he might, a hawk senator who will relate to Cook county could not give the vast central and southern parts of the state adequate representation.

3. The Senate is mishapen at present, listing heavily to the "left" ideologically. While he is a centrist in a few respects, Mr. Stevenson has so repeatedly called for the removal of the present South Vietnamese leaders that he would be certain to find much in common with such senators as Fulbright and Goodell. From the standpoint of an effective foreign policy, it is important that Senator Smith be retained in office.

Ralph Smith is needed in the Senate, in view of its present makeup, if the best possible laws and policies are to be achieved for Illinois and Americans.

Dixon for State Treasurer

STATE TREASURER — Alan J. Dixon (D, Belleville) is an able public official with a wealth of experience for his age. At 43, he has served 20 years in the General Assembly, the last four as Illinois Senate minority whip. We think he would make a conscientious state treasurer.

Since many of the other state offices are held by Republicans, the election of a Democrat would serve as a "check and balance." The precise level of funds available to the state government has become an issue in the current campaign and may well be debated in 1972 as well. Officials of differing parties seem most likely to keep each other on their toes and the public well informed.

As an additional factor is that the state treasurer post has served as a step upward for such officials as Attorney General Scott and is the base from which Adlai Stevenson III is seeking reelection to office. Election of Mr. Dixon to advance his standing with the public in a way which could lead to future service in other capacities.

We were impressed by the young Democratic nominee and think he could strengthen the office in its relationship with university boards but he is not as familiar as Page with elementary-secondary school administration.

Neither candidate seems to have an answer for the chaos in certain school systems, such as East St. Louis, where teachers are unwilling to work for the available money and where board members continue wasteful practices although "drowning in red ink."

Supt. Page, slow to innovate early in his eight-year stay in the office, has made noticeable progress during the past several years in encouraging improved instruction of the gifted and the handicapped, as well as helping pave the way for such programs as the year-around instruction plan in the Valley View (Romeoville, Ill.) school system.

On this basis, and his greater rapport with the Republican-controlled legislature, we recommend the re-election of Supt. Page. The position will become appointive if the proposed 1970 Illinois Constitution is approved by voters Dec. 15.

Stone, Walker, Howard, Pogue for Trustees

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS TRUSTEES — Able candidates for three six-year terms include W. Clement Stone (R, Chicago), who was appointed to a board vacancy by Gov. Ogilvie and had been on the board of Southern Illinois University to reimburse the state for the full cost of the controversial and costly SIU presidential residence and guest house at Carbondale; Dr. Earl Edwin Walker (R, Harrisburg), another Ogilvie appointee and a trustee knowledgeable regarding the medical school program; and George W. Howard III (D, Mount Vernon), an attorney who served on the board to help provide southern area representation.

For a two-year trustee term, Roger Pogue (D, Decatur) is recommended, keeping in mind the heavy district court and circuit court caseload weighted toward northern Illinois; a businessman and a nephew of the late Trustee Harold Pogue, he is a past president of the Alumni Association.

Price for Congressman

CONGRESSMAN—Melvin Price (D, East St. Louis), is the obvious choice on the basis of his record of 26 consecutive years of distinguished service, including skilled legislative leadership regarding the armed services, nuclear energy and military equipment.

Retain Appellate, Circuit Judges

INCUMBENT JUDGES SEEKING RETENTION (green ballot) — We recommend that voters retain in office, by voting "Yes," George J. Moran, Granite City, a judge of the Fifth District Appellate Court and three circuit judges of the Third Judicial Circuit, Joseph J. Barr, Wood River, Harold R. Clark, Alton, and James O. Monroe Jr., Collinsville. The fourth circuit judge is not on the ballot this year.

Clark for Supreme Court Judge

SUPREME COURT JUDGE—Harold R. Clark (R, Alton) is our choice between two outstanding candidates.

It should be noted that a vacancy will be created regardless of the outcome; Judge Clark serves in this circuit, while his Supreme Court opponent, Joseph H. Goldenherb (D, East St. Louis), is on the Fifth Appellate Court. In the interim before election of a successor to the next general election, judges from outside the circuit or district will be assigned to handle part of the caseload.

On the surface, Judge Goldenherb would seem to deserve preference because his service at the appellate level has more closely approximated the Illinois Supreme Court duties. Circuit Judge Clark would face a bit more adjustment in advancing to the top court, since he at present is two levels away instead of one.

We think the voters should give Attorney General Scott merit much consideration. Endorsing Clark to serve the 37-county district as one of the seven state justices, and noting that Clark has been a leader in disclosing income sources, Scott accurately says that the Fifth District voters' decision may be the determining factor in the philosophy guiding the high court during the 1970s.

Judge Clark proposes "a firm hand in supervising and disciplining judges" as one of the steps toward restoring greater public confidence in Illinois courts; "setting standards of legal education and the licensing of lawyers and enforcing all disciplinary proceedings relating to their relationship with clients and their courtroom conduct"; "faster scheduling of trials and appeals"; and defense of "the public's right to live without fear of criminals."

'Yes' on Anti-Pollution Bond Act

ANTI-POLLUTION BOND ACT—$750 MILLION BOND ISSUE (white ballot)—Passage requires a majority of the votes cast for General Assembly members, and we urge a "yes" vote by all interested in environmental improvement. Each failure to vote on the proposal will be counted as a negative vote.

The bond proceeds would be used to plan, finance and build municipal sewage treatment works and waste disposal facilities.

Most of the projects will have to be carried out by the state. The bond issue would qualify governing bodies for greatly increased state-federal participation, reducing the amount of local-level taxes required.

'Yes' on Adding Article IX-A to Constitution

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT (blue ballot)—Illinois voters have the opportunity to sign and ratify the proposed Article IX-A, which would give individuals, and are believed likely to approve the elimination even though passage requires a majority of those going to the polls or two thirds of those voting in a referendum. Furniture and one auto per household already have been exempted.

The tax has been unevenly administered in various counties and the loss of its revenue to taxing agencies is expected to be partly offset by supplemental funds from the state government.

With the help of the police department, Mayor Partney, Police Chief Ronald Vetter and Policemen's Union Local 1347, they plan to explore different methods of law enforcement in development of photos, gun safety and booking procedures.

The first meeting was held Oct. 13 in the CVIS office with Officer Harris as advisor.

ISU Students Urging Release of POW Names

An Illinois State University student organization is calling for pressure by the American public on the government of North Vietnam to release names of U. S. prisoners of war and to afford them with proper treatment.

The ISU chapter of VIVA—Voices in a Vital America—has set aside this week to sell bracelets bearing names of known prisoners of war and to circulate petitions calling for release of POW names.

Joel Weiner of Flushing, N.Y., president of the student organization, said members are urging students and community residents to write the office of the president of the Democratic Republic of Vietnam in Hanoi and ask that:

Names of American POWs be released. Prisoners of war be allowed to write to their families. Proper medical treatment and living conditions be afforded American POWs in accord with the 1949 Geneva convention.

YOUR Insurance AGENT

The cheap insurance policy. Is it worth it?

Not if cheap insurance means anything less than full protection. If it may surprise you to learn that there are some very real differences among the policies that various fire and casualty companies offer.

How can you take advantage of them, though, when you don't know what they are?

An independent insurance agent knows. He'll go over your coverage with you. Weigh it in the light of your wants and budget. Compare it with other policies on the market. An independent agent can do this because he represents several fire insurance companies offering a range of policies for your car, home or business.

Where can you find this trained professional, and what do his services cost? Look for his Big "I" symbol. The advice and recommendations of an independent agent are free, and obligate you in no way.

See him soon. Putting it off could cost you more than a cut-rate policy can save you in a lifetime.

SEN. MERRILL OTTEWEIN
Costs of welfare and other social services are skyrocketing. As a member of the Senate Public Welfare Committee and Chairman of a new subcommittee to study social service delivery costs, I need to know your attitude. Do you favor a national minimum income to help reduce administration costs and eliminate waste effort... Would it be reasonable for the state to offer free family planning? SENATOR MERRILL OTTEWEIN CARES: Do you? You can let him know at Rt. 4, Edwardsville, Ill.

BURTON C. BERNARD Lafayette Square Will Be Topic of Historical Group

Burton C. Bernard of Granite City, a lawyer and historian, will speak on "Lafayette Square: Nagel, Brandeis, Lehmann and Other Luminaries Who Lived There" at a meeting of the Historical Association of Greater St. Louis at 8:15 p.m. Friday, Oct. 30 in Brown Hall lounge, Washington University. The public is invited.

Charles Nagel, Louis D. Brandeis and Frederick W. Lehmann were nationally known as lawyers. Brandeis, appointed U. S. Supreme Court Justice in 1916, was admitted to the St. Louis bar in 1878 during his eight-month stay with the Nagel family at 2044 Lafayette avenue, a building that is still standing.

Nagel, Secretary of Commerce and Labor under President William Howard Taft, is best remembered by present-day St. Louisans for his long service on the boards of the St. Louis Art Museum and Washington University. A native of Texas and a graduate of Central high school and Washington University Law School, he lived at 1310 Mississippi (now marked 1319) before moving to Lafayette avenue.

Lehmann came to St. Louis in 1890 as attorney for the Wabash Railroad. From 1899 to 1932 he lived in the 25-room brick house at 10 Benton place, just north of Lafayette Park. He served as president of the St. Louis public library board from 1900 to 1910, when he was appointed U. S. Solicitor General by President Taft.

Diverse Residents

Other residents of the area included Carl Schurz, Emil Preterorius, David Nicholson, pianist-composer Walter W. Stockhoff, two railroad presidents, at least two mayors, the widow of Fin-min Desloge and numerous merchants and manufacturers.

John Albury Bryan, an architect living at 21 Benton place, has just published a pamphlet for the Landmarks Association, entitled "Lafayette Square: The Most Historic Old Neighborhood in St. Louis."

The architects he mentions who designed churches and homes around this 30-acre park include George I. Barnett, Theodore C. Link, John H. Maurer, Frederick W. Rieder and Otto J. Witthel.

The Historical Association of Greater St. Louis, founded in 1908, consists of teachers in colleges and universities and in public and private schools in the St. Louis metropolitan area, as well as laymen interested in history.

It holds four meetings a year, and dues are nominal. Further information is available from N. Webster Moore, Vashon high school, president, or Charles E. Farr, Normandy senior high school, corresponding secretary.

Immediate Renovation Needed for Dental School to Open Next Fall

The board of trustees of Southern Illinois University voted this week to spend $1.5 million for renovation and architectural services at the Alton Center during the current fiscal year. The remodeled space would be used by the new School of Dental Medicine.

The school will ultimately be located on the Southwestern campus, with Alton facilities used for research and as a regional dental clinic.

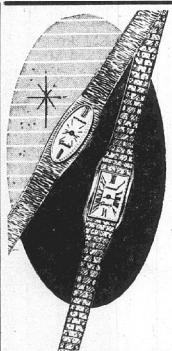

Approval of the remodeling was necessary if the School of Dental Medicine is to be able to accept its first freshman class next September, trustees were advised. The request will be forwarded to the Illinois Board of Higher Education for action at its meeting Nov. 3.

The $1.5 million would come from funds already appropriated to the university for the current year.

Timing Problem
On Sept. 21, trustees approved the remodeling as part of the capital budget request for the 1971-72 fiscal year beginning July 1. However, funds
